comparison, Corkle having had more training and experience. He took some chances with Young Currie that he would not have dared to take with a more experienced fighter, remaining open all the time. However, Johnnie failed to take advantage of his chances and Corkle was not hit effectively. Currie put up a game fight and showed that he could have gone much further than three rounds.

Feature Fight.

The feature fight of the evening was between Sid Hardy and Eddie Craggs. This was a three-round, no decision bout and there was a lot of speedy action. Hardy started in with much energy and although doing the most foot-work, Craggs seemed to get in the most effective blows and caught Hardy several times with a nasty left drive with a lot of force behind it. Hardy took things easy the first round and stood considerable punishment but in the second and third rounds showed a lot of speed. He caught Craggs a nasty poke in the nose during the third round and had him in a corner pounding him hard when the final gong was rung.

Roi Barnes refereed all the fights in a clean, businesslike manner.

For the Building.

During the program, Secretary Cameron gave a five minute address, thanking the audience for the good turn-out. He explained that the purpose of the smoker was in aid of the memorial fund and that next winter the association hoped to be able to hold a series of smokers in their own building. He reported the membership of the Association 235 and invited other veterans to join. President Simon Duff was much in evidence in the carrying out of the arrangements and the following committee was in charge:—Jack Frost, Billy Kerr, Captain McGregor, Percy Tinker, Jack Kelly, H. Smith, Ray McDonald and Harry Breen.

NATURAL VAMP IS A TROUBLE MAKER

Constance Talmadge in "A Virtuous Vamp" Captivates Many At Westholme.

How a modest girl with a captivating smile lured a Manhattan insurance company into a workshop of lovelorn wretches forms the basis for the next Constance Talmadge picture which will be seen at the Westholme tonight.

"A Virtuous Vamp" is the title of this attraction. As Nellie Jones Miss Talmadge takes the part of a girl who found it convenient to cast aside her aristocratic name of Gwendolyn Diana Beaufort Armitage, in order to gain a place in the insurance office of James Crowninshield, a bachelor who bated to mix social affairs with business.

Nellie is a steady stenographer until Gilda Gray, a Broadway shimmy dancer, makes application for a $50,000 policy on her shoulders. Then it becomes necessary for the winsome typist to escort the staid Mr. Crowninshield to a jazz parlor for an investigation of this matter.

It is than that Crowninshield decides to stop being a bachelor, and this makes the beginning of Nellie's vampish attempts to win the only man who refuses to be captivated by her "innocent" wiles.

DOCK BASKETERS HAVE WON AGAIN

In a fast and hard-fought game, the Drydock basketballers won from the Sons of Canada in one of the most interesting games of the season last night. The Sons lost mainly on account of their hard luck in basket shooting. A feature of the game was the effective checking of George Shaw against Clementson, the star Drydock basket shooter. The final score was 28 to 16. Lee Dell refereed the game, making very satisfactory decisions.

Following is the team standing of the Senior League:—

	W.	L.	Pct.
Drydock	5	0	1000
Callies	2	2	500
Sons of Canada	2	3	400
Travelers	2	3	400
Sons of England	0	3	000

Under the able conductorship of J. Stewart Pudney, the actor-manager of the Prince Rupert Dramatic Club, "The Magistrate" will be produced at the Westholme Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, February 9 and 10.

The play abounds with clever dialogues and soliloquies, amusing episodes, embarrassing situations, contretemps and denouements from start to finish, making it one of the most successful comedies of the day.

In most of the large cities of many countries the play has run for months at a time, filling the largest theatres to capacity with delighted audiences. A little bit of comparatively harmless deception practised by a lonely widow desirous of securing a very eligible second husband forms the foundation thread from which a very tangled web is woven.

Nelson Lougheed returned to Port Moody on the Prince George this morning.

Peace Incomes and War Prices

TEN years ago a Canadian clergyman was forced by illness to retire from active work. The largest salary he had received in the forty years of his ministry was $1000 and a furnished house. The average did not exceed $800.

On this sum he had maintained and educated his family. He and his wife were given to frequent hospitality. They supported every good cause, and even contributed to the maintenance charges of the Church they served.

A Minister's Budget

By good management and economy they were able to carry an endowment insurance policy, pay an assessment to their Church Superannuation Fund, and accumulate some small savings. When that clergyman was superannuated in 1909, he bought a house. His income during the first year of retirement was as follows:—

The retiring allowance from the Church (being $10 for each year of active work)	-	-	-	-	-	$400.00
Interest from investments	-	-	-	-	-	100.00
Wedding fees and sundries	-	-	-	-	-	75.00
Summer supply work	-	-	-	-	-	100.00

Against this total of $675 stood the charge for taxes, insurance and maintenance of the house; say, $75, leaving a net annual income of $600.

The Shrinkage in Values

Before the war, the rise in the cost of living had necessitated careful management of this income. Today, the pressure is too great to be borne. If the statisticians are correct, the dollar of 1913 is worth now in purchasing power about 47c.

Therefore, the real income available to maintain these people of refinement and culture is $282 a year.

Do you say that this is an exceptional case? On the contrary, scores of retired clergymen are not so well situated as this one. Some are tasting the bitterness of destitution, since in a few instances no retiring allowances are provided for.

Veterans of the Cross

These men gave a lifetime of unselfish service for their Church, their country, their neighbors; visiting the sick, burying the dead, comforting the bereaved, preaching Christ crucified, and doing their part in making Canada "God's country." In a time when the payment of pensions to old employees is accepted as a reasonable thing by industrial firms, these veterans deserve more consideration than they have been getting from the Christian people of this Dominion.

The Forward Movements

The Superannuation, Beneficiary or pension funds of the five Communions co-operating in the United National Campaign must be largely increased to yield a reasonable and an adequate income for these old heroes of the pulpit.

They ARE heroes. They make no complaint. They still are found doing all that their strength will permit for the great and noble Cause to which they devoted their lives. They still are enduring hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ.

What Are You Going To Do About It?

This is not a question of Charity. It is a question of justice, of chivalry, of common honesty.

Your Church is seeking, through the Forward Movement, to do its full duty to the retired clergymen.

Your interest and your subscription are needed.

Tell your Church leaders where you stand. Do it NOW.
