Got a Cold?

Peps will give you relief.

Simply dissolve a Peps tablet in your mouth. Your breath carries the medicinal Pine vapor, which is released, to all parts of the throat, nasal and air passages, where a liquid medicine could not possibly reach. This vapor destroys all germs with which it comes in contact, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and fortifies you against coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis and grippe. Peps contain absolutely no harmful drugs and are therefore the safest remedy for children.

SUPERINTENDENT OF UTILITIES WILL GO ON TRIP TO VANCOUVER

In the Interests of the Telephone and Electrical Departments.

The superintendent of utilities, T. C. Duncan, is to take a trip to Vancouver, according to the decision of the council Monday night. He will look into the matter of buying supplies for the extension of the telephone system and also secure data as to the installation of a plant for the supplying of more power in the city.

Considerable discussion arose as to whether this trip was necessary and the utilities committee, who recommended the trip, stuck to their guns. Finally a vote was taken and the recommendation for the trip was passed. Aldermen Dybhavn, Perry, Murray and Kerr in favor, and Aldermen Rochester, Currie and Casey against. Alderman McLennan did not vote. The mayor declared the recommendation adopted by a 4-3 vote.

MANY TRIBUTES TO MR. MOBLEY

Premier Was Visibly Moved as he Announced the Sad News to Legislative Assembly.

The respect and esteem in which the late member for Atlin in the Legislative Assembly was held by his associates in politics, both Liberal and Conservative is fittingly shown by the remarks which have been made, the tributes paid and the sympathy felt for his wife and family since the death of Frank Mobley last week. This respect could not be better shown than in the tributes paid to him by the leaders of both parties in the Legislature and by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, his associate in the pioneer days of the north for over a score of years.

Immediately following the formal opening of the Legislature on the afternoon after his death, Premier Oliver arose and announced the sad news. With visible emotion Mr. Oliver observed that Mr. Mobley's death came as a great shock to himself and to his colleagues and proceeded to say that for the fourth time since the present parliament had assembled the Grim Reaper had invaded the legislature.

Premier's Tribute.

The Premier continued: "Only a few days ago on the opening of the House that gentleman was here, the very picture of health and good spirits. No one could have imagined that within a week I should have this painful duty of announcing his demise. In Mr. Mobley this House had the advantage of a member better informed, perhaps, than any other on the great north country. With his wife he was a pioneer of that great section. He possessed the esteem of everyone with whom he came in contact: no man in British Columbia was more deservedly held in esteem whether in the business, social or political life. I am sure the sympathies of the members of this House and of the people of the province will go out to Mrs. Mobley and family of which one is still too young to ever know the love and guidance of a father."

Mr. Pattullo's Tribute.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, paid a tribute to the late member for Atlin, stating he had first met him on the White Pass trail twenty-seven years ago. He referred to the successful business career of the late member in the partnership of Stewart & Mobley. In Prince Rupert the late Mr. Mobley had taken an active part in civic affairs and had been a member of the first City Council in which the Minister of Lands, too, was a member. In the second year Mr. Mobley had run for the office of mayor but through a combination of circumstances had been defeated. At the last provincial general election he had won for the Liberal party after a strenuous fight.

On behalf of Northern British Columbia, Hon. Mr. Pattullo desired to express sincere regret at the death of Mr. Mobley and condolence with the widow and family.

Mr. Bowser's Appreciation.

Mr. Bowser referred to his long personal acquaintance with the late member for Atlin, whom he had always regarded as one of the band of pioneers of the north, the number of which, unfortunately, is steadily growing less.

"We on this side of the House sincerely regret his demise. As chief Liberal whip we always found him sincere and kindly. We of the Conservative opposition desire to express our regret at the late member's sudden and untimely end and our sincere sympathy with the members of the bereaved family," concluded Mr. Bowser.

The House then adjourned.

FAIRBANKS AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

It is only necessary to mention the name of Douglas Fairbanks to a good many people to insure that they will attend the movies on that night, the big athlete and actor being a general favorite. This is one of the happy occasions when he may be seen. His "Knickerbocker Buckeroo" will be the big thing at the Westholme tonight and doubtless his admirers will be there in force.

People often wonder how Fairbanks does some of his stunts. He is the movie wonder of the day.
