Calling Tenders in Fisheries Department.

Step by step Prince Rupert will have to win her way to recognition as a national port. Yesterday it was announced in this paper that tenders were to be called here for building a launch and also for outfitting a number of Dominion Government patrol boats. This follows the establishment of Prince Rupert as a separate marine district and is a distinct gain. It is to be hoped that Prince Rupert people will bid on these contracts and try to secure them locally.

Dental Clinic For the Schools.

We take great pleasure in congratulating the school board on the step they have taken in providing in the estimates for the establishment of a dental clinic for the children. It is a move in the right direction and one that will be appreciated by parents who have the real welfare of the children at heart. The next step will be to get the clinic in operation.

Much News From Great Britain.

The News is publishing a great deal of news from Great Britain. This is because just now that country is wrestling with a great many problems which are of particular interest, especially to labor. The action taken in England will have a great effect on action which is likely to be taken elsewhere in the future. Britain has been a pioneer in democratic movements, and is still to the fore. It was there that parliamentary government was first evolved and it is there that the fight is going on against the control of human lives by the big monied interests.

The Irish question is also of great interest wherever the shamrock is grown, and it is because of this that the News features the telegraphic despatches having to do with those countries.

Time to Slough Right of Appeal.

Now that the Dominion Parliament is about to meet soon, it seems opportune to mention once more the objection taken in this country to the right of appeal which now exists to the Privy Council of Great Britain in legal cases. It is not often that the right is exercised as a very few of all the cases tried ever find their way across the Atlantic for final decision. What we contend, however, is that no cases should be tried outside of Canada.

It is a reflection on the ability of Canadian judges to say that they are not as competent to judge in points of Canadian law as are British judges. The common law of England obtains, wherever there are no Canadian laws covering cases, and both English and American judgments are quoted in courts in matters of precedent. Equity is the same in every country, or should be. The difference between the law as administered in this country and in Great Britain is simply the difference in local laws from those of Britain and the different conception which the judges may have of the rights and liberties of the people.

As an example it may be mentioned that in the law of libel there is an old English saying "the greater the truth the greater the libel." It is a long time since newspapers here have been punished for telling the truth. The conception of justice here is against it. It may be law, but in most cases, it is not justice. Canadian judges recognize the plea of "public interest" and rule accordingly.

We believe that the judges on this side of the Atlantic have just as much ability as those on the other side, and they are in much closer touch with the aims and aspirations of the people, and for that reason the right of appeal to the Privy Council, with all its attendant evils, should be abolished.

LITTLE BRAS D'OR, C. B.
"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches and did not sleep well at night. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-lives'. In a week, the Constipation was corrected and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.
