Lloyd George Seems Secure.

In spite of the many attacks on them by the opposition the Lloyd George Government in Great Britain is holding its own in Parliament and seems likely to last for some time yet. That is making the labor men uneasy as they are very impatient over the matter of nationalization of the mines. It may be a year or two before they are able to bring the matter before the people in a constitutional way. If the British Constitution provided for the initiative and referendum the miners would be provided with a means of taking a vote of the people and perhaps avoiding a big strike.

We do not believe it is right for the miners to strike on a constitutional measure of that kind. There is a method provided for righting wrongs or securing reforms, and labor men must learn to be patient in regard to such matters. They cannot expect to get everything at once. They must also learn to abide by the decision of the majority and at the last election the vast majority was with the present Government.

Mace and Sword Relics of Barbarism.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin is to discontinue the carrying of the mace and sword before him and the placing of them on the table during sittings of the city council. Probably they will never reappear.

In all probability the reason for the removal of the mace and sword is simply a means of showing dislike for British institutions, yet the Lord Mayor is undoubtedly right. The mace and the sword are relics of barbarism and should be discarded on such occasions.

In this country we have discarded many of the old forms, but we still have a few. Our form of proclamation is a most ridiculous one. It is time that royal proclamations, if used at all, should be written in modern English. This continual harking back to old forms and old ceremonies is out of keeping with the age in which we live. The old forms are interesting as relics, but not as being of any practical value.

The point of view of the Indians on this coast is a good one. They dislike to exhibit themselves in any but the most modern guise. They say they have turned their backs on the old customs and forms and have become a new people with new ideas and ideals. So should we. With the ending of the war we shall have to become a new people with new ideas and ideals or we shall be left behind in the advancement of the race.

Liquor Cases are Sole Topic of Conversation.

The liquor cases are the sole topics of conversation these days. The people are hungry for news respecting them. There is a general feeling that there is more to be heard yet. The people are on the qui vive and there is much idle talk and speculation in regard to who is behind it all. No one believes that the men who have been arrested are the principals. Somebody with money is handling the business.

The police force seems to be active just now and the public are expecting that they will not rest just yet. An ugly cancer has to be cut away before the body is again sound, and this underground illegal traffic must be suppressed if the city is to be in a healthy condition.

Administration of United States Doomed.

The crew of the American ship of state are quarrelling among themselves, a pretty sure indication that the ship is in danger. Wilson and his party are certainly doomed to retire to obscurity as soon as the people of that country get an opportunity to say so. They have outlived their usefulness for the present and another president with a totally new administration will take charge a year hence. Unfortunately for the United States the constitution of that country is so inelastic that there is no way of hastening the consummation of an event which is a foregone conclusion.

OWES HER LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

After Years of Suffering with Dyspepsia, this Fruit Medicine Gave Relief

Mlle. ANTOINETTE BOUCHER

917 Dorion St., Montreal.

"I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' for this remedy relieved me when I had abandoned all hope of ever recovering my health."

I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good.

I read something about 'Fruit-a-tives' being good for all Stomach Troubles and Disorders of Digestion so I tried them. After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia and my general health was restored.

I thank the great fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', for this wonderful relief."
