Re Application No. 11365-L. File 6274.
TAKE NOTICE that application has been made to register David H. Hays, of Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner in fee under a Fax Sale Deed from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert, bearing date the 23rd day of October, 1919, of ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Prince Rupert, more particularly known and described as Lot thirty (30), Block forty-two (42), Section eight (8), (Map 923). You are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 35 days from the date of the service of this notice (which may be effected by publication in the Daily News, Prince Rupert), and your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" with amendments, and to the following extract therefrom:

"and in default of a caveat or certificate of assents being filed before the registration as owner of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, and those claiming through or under them, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be for ever estopped and barred from setting up claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

AND WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Infeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands, in the name of David H. Hays.

FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Infeasible Title to the said lands in the name of David H. Hays unless you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, if any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Prince Rupert, B. C., this 7th day of November, A. D. 1919.

Sport Briefs

The newly formed Pacific Coast International Baseball League has set a salary limit which will ensure the various clubs to secure first class playing talent. Already the various club owners are scouring the country for players and some of the best ball tossers in the minors will be seen in action on Northwest diamonds. Both Seattle and Tacoma will be represented by exceptionally strong clubs, while Vancouver and Spokane may be depended upon to furnish first class ball for the fans.

There are very few athletes who have made good both in professional hockey and baseball. Toronto has the distinction of having turned out a couple of these rare birds. "Babe" Dye, who is playing with the St. Patricks in the National Hockey League, is to play with the Maple Leafs in the International League this summer, having signed a contract a few days ago. Another Toronto boy, Andy Kyle, played pro. hockey with the old Shamrocks and also played in the American Association, establishing quite a reputation as a hitter.

Con Jones, as representative of the British Columbia Football Association was upheld last week in his stand regarding B. C. football by the Dominion officials in Toronto. Ex-President Campbell of the D. F. A. stated that the B. C. F. A. was the association granted affiliation with the Dominion association and Jack Russell, opposing Jones, could not be recognized. The D. F. A. officials ridiculed the idea advanced by Russell that affiliation with the governing body would involve professionalizing of players.

It was decided at the convention to bring out only one Old Country football team to Canada this summer and Jones was given credentials to use in England for conducting negotiations. Although the decision as to what team will be brought out is dependent on what agreement Con Jones can effect with the clubs on the other side it was suggested that the Newcastle Uniteds should be highly acceptable to soccer fans throughout the Dominion. Jones will leave for the Old Country from New York on the Adriatic sailing on February 14.
