The HOUSE and the OWNER

We are told of a house which was continuously insured against fire for thirty years. Yet fire never touched it during the thirty years! However, no less than seven people died in that dwelling. This case shows the difference between life insurance and all other forms.

Fire MAY COME but Death MUST COME. If life insurance is a necessity, and we think it is, life insurance is very much more necessary. If a possible danger should be guarded against, how much more an inevitable one. Your family can be protected against the inevitable by a policy in

MARY PICKFORD IN "CAPTAIN KIDD, JR."

Greatest of Film Stars to be Seen Tonight in Fine Picture.

Once more the management of the Westholme Theatre has been able to secure a Mary Pickford film, another of her best, made under her own management with her own company.

There are a number of people who never miss a Mary Pickford film and it is a good habit to get. Mary as an actress is always splendid. She stands out pre-eminently as one of the leaders of the movie art.

In "Captain Kidd, Jr." it is said that Mary is great. The story is a delightfully realistic one and will have a special appeal to those who like anything exciting.

J. R. Morgan has purchased the Vital Spark, the 46 ft. gasoline boat which formerly belonged to the late Captain William Selig, and is having it repaired at Cow Bay.

Oscar Johnson, a logger in the employ of J. R. Morgan, had the misfortune to lose a finger while working around the winch at Akerberg & Thomson's machine shop yesterday afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Yamada, the Swanson Bay Japanese woman who died at the hospital last week, took place from the B. C. Undertakers' parlors at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Services were conducted under the auspices of the local Japanese Mission.

George M. Bruggy, the Alice Arm merchant, is back in Vancouver after a trip to California. Mr. Bruggy reports that Californians are very interested in northern mining. Before coming north he will purchase supplies for his mine on the Marmot river near Stewart, at Seattle.

In tow of the Granby gasoline tug Azurite, the new boat for H. F. Kergin left for Alice Arm on Saturday afternoon. The boat which has been built at Cow Bay by Neil McLean will be used in the ferry service between Alice Arm and Anyox. Mr. Kergin was aboard on the northbound trip.

CREE ENTERTAINER FINE ELOCUTIONIST

Miss Frances Nickawa is Here and Has Great Record.

Miss Frances Nickawa, who arrived last night, will give her great entertainment in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening. Speaking of her Dr. W. J. Sipprell says:

"I am pleased to say that I have had the pleasure of attending the recitals of Miss Frances Nickawa, 'The Cree Entertainer,' several times. I have been delighted beyond measure. I would endeavor to grasp any opportunity I might have of hearing her again. I consider Miss Nickawa a reader of rare merit and as an interpreter of the works of E. Pauline Johnson, I do not remember ever having heard her equal. Miss Nickawa has an extensive repertoire for one so young."

INFORMATION WANTED

Joe O'Donnell, last heard of in Prince Rupert about a year ago, is being enquired for by his sister, Mrs. M. J. Flynn, of New York, in order to have the estate of a late relative cleared up.

The Prince Albert has completed her overhaul at Yarrow's, Victoria, following her grounding on Masset Bar and is now on the way north with a full cargo. She left Vancouver on Friday and will call at the southern Queen Charlottes before making this port tomorrow.
