WILL PRODUCE LIGHT OPERA

Professor Harvey and J. S. Pudney to Join Forces on French Production.

Professor Harvey and J. S. Pudney, leaders respectively of the Symphony Orchestra and the Dramatic Club, are to join forces for the purpose of producing a French light opera, "La Mouscotte."

The production will have a chorus of sixteen besides the principals. It was first produced in Paris in 1871 and is a well known French classic. Prince Rupert people will look forward with interest to seeing the consummation of this new venture.

INDIANS ARE COMING HERE FOR FALL FAIR

School Children are Preparing to Make Visit and New Band Being Formed.

The natives on the Queen Charlotte Islands are taking great interest in the exhibition here next year and are proposing to send over a group of school children to give an entertainment here. These will be chosen from the seventy pupils attending school at Masset.

The Skidegate natives will not be behind hand in contributing their share. A junior brass band is being organized there and new instruments are being purchased. It is very probable that this band will have become sufficiently proficient to come to Prince Rupert for the next fair.

LAND REGISTRY ACT.
(Sections 36 and 134.)

The Application No. 11365-L. File 6274.

TAKE NOTICE that application has been made to register David H. Hays, of Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner in fee under a Tax Sale Deed from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert, bearing date the 23rd day of October, 1919, of ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Prince Rupert, more particularly known, and described as Lot thirty (30), Block forty-two (42), Section eight (8), (Map 923). You are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 35 days from the date of the service of this notice (which may be effected) by publication in the Daily News, Prince Rupert, and your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" with amendments, and to the following extract therefrom:—

"and in default of a caveat or certificate of his pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, and those claiming through or under them, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be for ever estopped and debarred from setting up claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

AND WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands, in the name of David H. Hays.

AND WHEREAS on investigating the title it appears that prior to the 10th day of October, 1908 (the date on which the said lands were sold for overdue taxes), you were the Crown Granted owner thereof.

FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the said lands in the name of David H. Hays unless you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, if any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Prince Rupert, B. C., this 7th day of November, A. D. 1919.

H. F. MACLEOD,
District Registrar of Titles.

INDIAN POPULATION OF THE ISLANDS IS GROWING CONSIDERABLY

Among the arrivals from Moresby Island yesterday was Tom Deasy of the Indian Department who had been to Skidegate to conduct the election to the village council. There was a keen contest and those elected were James McKay, chief councillor, and H. B. Green, W. H. Russ, Matthew Williams, Thos. Crosby, and Albert Jones. These were chosen from twelve candidates.

The village at Skidegate has about 250 natives that are just about holding their own from a population point of view. An Indian office was opened there recently and Mr. Deasy spends part of his time at that place and part at Masset.

Asked whether the Indians at Masset were holding their own, Mr. Deasy said that they were on the increase. Last year there were sixteen births and only six deaths, the total population being 40, of whom about seventy were children attending school.

Listen!

Have you heard about Peps? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Peps contains certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence healing.

FREE TRIAL Cut out this article, write across it the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 1c stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Peps, 50c. box.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL FINDS HAPPINESS

"The World to Live in" at the Westholme tonight is a picture that is bound to appeal to all classes—rich and poor, young and old. The story is a human one, with human people as characters.

The plot is briefly that of a young girl—a stenographer—whose one desire is happiness and the world to live in. She does not care who supplies her with happiness, as long as she does not have to pay. She is the kind of a girl who will take everything she can get without paying anything. She is a "pal" to a rich New Yorker, who supplies her with the luxuries of life, but who does not think he loves her enough to marry her. At a wedding she meets a young settlement house doctor, who immediately falls in love with her. Her heart tells her that this is the man she loves—her mate—but she refuses to listen to the dictates of her heart because she is aware that the doctor cannot supply her with the luxuries of life. She tries to forget him, but finds life impossible. It is only when she becomes the doctor's wife that she learns what true happiness is.

FUNERAL OF LATE MRS. D. L. STEWART

The funeral of Mrs. D. L. Stewart took place from the B. C. Undertakers' parlors yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Dr. H. R. Grant officiating. There were a number of friends present at the last rites and the remains were interred in Fairview Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were M. M. Stephens, W. W. Wrathall, Capt. H. B. Babington, Douglas Sutherland, and A. J. Phillipson and J. H. Thompson. Among the floral tributes were wreaths from Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mussallan, Miss Millie Denda and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibson.
