

CECIL BARRIE CLEVER GENIUS

Great Audience Greeted Him at Westholme Last Night—Versatility of Tricks.

Cecil Barrie, the trickster and magician, who made his opening appearance of a three-night run at the Westholme Theatre last evening, offers a new variety of entertainment for Prince Rupert audiences and judging from the applause he drew from the packed house last night his work was appreciated. He is a versatile performer and has an abundance of tricks which amuse and certainly deceive. To round out his repertoire he has a pleasant and amusing stage presence which itself provokes a smile. His performance tonight will be an entire change from last night including the fortune telling coin trick, the coins for which will be selected from the audience.

"Price of Innocence."

Besides this special attraction, the management of the Westholme have to offer a splendid feature film entitled "The Price of Innocence," starring Stella Talbot as Mary Aldron, a squatter girl. The story pictures squatter life on "Goose Island" and pictures the efforts of the humble fisher folk to save their homes from the efforts of a wealthy young land owner to drive them out. Mary Aldron enacts a strong emotional part in preventing the plan to dispossess her people but at the cost of their confidence and belief in her. Two comedies also make a big evening's entertainment.

Charles Balagno has just recovered from a serious attack of influenza in Prince George.

LAND REGISTRY ACT. (sections 36 and 134.)

The Application No. 11365-L. File 6274. TAKE NOTICE that application has been made to register David H. Hays, of Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner in fee under a Tax Sale Deed from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert, bearing date the 23rd day of October, 1919, of ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Prince Rupert, more particularly known and described as Lot thirty (30), Block forty-two (42), Section eight (8), (Map 923). You are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 35 days from the date of the service of this notice (which may be effected by publication in the Daily News, Prince Rupert), and your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" with amendments, and to the following extract therefrom:

"and in default of a caveat or certificate of his pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, and those claiming through or under them, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be forever estopped and debarred from setting up a claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

AND WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands, in the name of David H. Hays.

AND WHEREAS on investigating the title it appears that prior to the 10th day of October, 1908 (the date on which the said lands were sold for overdue taxes), you were the Crown Granted owner thereof.

FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the said lands in the name of David H. Hays unless you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, if any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Prince Rupert, B. C., this 7th day of November, A. D. 1919.

H. F. MACLEOD,
District Registrar of Titles.
To Ethel Tate,
Victoria, B. C. 56

A 15 YEARS' FIRE

Just think! That is the time through which Mr. H. C. Buckley endured all the fiery torture of itching, burning eczema. His life was a perfect misery until Zam-Buk—the great herbal skin cure—brought complete relief.

Mr. Buckley, who lives at 461 East Broadway, Portland, Oregon, writes:—"For fifteen years I suffered with eczema, and although I tried many so-called 'eczema cures,' nothing seemed capable of dealing with a case like mine. It was not until I had Zam-Buk recommended to me that I began to have hope. This wonderful skin healer soon brought about a change for the better. As I persevered with Zam-Buk the burning sensation got less. I found Zam-Buk wonderfully soothing. Gradually the patches of soreness and the inflammation were reduced, and complete and permanent cure finally resulted. I would strongly advise all afflicted with eczema to give Zam-Buk a trial. It will give them satisfaction. They will not be disappointed."

No skin disease can resist the potent healing forces stored up in Zam-Buk, which is unequalled for old wounds, ulcers, abscesses, bad legs, scalp sores, blood-poisoning, piles, scalds, burns, cuts and all skin injuries. All druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

THAT a bomb set by the Sinn Feiners to blow up the police barracks at Ballynahinch was like many other bombs which failed to explode.

THAT some bombs when they explode prove to be nothing but fire crackers.

THAT an American lawyer was chosen by the Canadian Government to act as counsel in the G. T. P. arbitration.

THAT it is to be assumed that no Canadians were good enough for the job.

THAT for a political group that unfurled the Union Jack and shook it on every possible occasion and made political capital of it, this is curious procedure.

THAT possibly they were right, but the people will think otherwise.

THAT there is a difference between the city council and the school board as to the exact location of the new school building.

THAT nobody else seems to care anything about it.

THAT the school board has the last word as they are the authority and not the city council.

THAT it is best to work together amicably if possible.

THAT the building should certainly be located in such a way that the playground may be utilized to advantage.

THAT doubtless the members of the school board have taken expert advice on the matter.

THAT it was a sign of the times when the fall of a tree in the Garden of Gethsemane was of sufficient importance to telegraph to Prince Rupert.

THAT the Tory paper, the Montreal Gazette, is agreed with the Liberal minister, A. K. MacLean, that unionism has served its purpose.

THAT both are remembering that pledges were made before the last election to the effect that as soon as the war was over an appeal would be made to the country.

THAT no one else seems anxious for an election, but it must come soon.

THAT the passing of a new Franchise Act this session will pave the way.
