SENSATIONAL FORGERY CASE AT EDMONTON

Girl is Alleged to Have Stolen Checks and Committed Crime Wholesale.

EDMONTON, Feb. 26.—Great interest is being taken in the case of Mrs. Percy, who is believed to be the woman who came into the Bank of Montreal here last fall and cashed a check for $3,000 which was afterwards found to be fraudulent. Mrs. Percy, together with her daughter and husband was arrested at Calgary last week and Inspector Shaw accompanied by the police matron have just brought them back to Edmonton. The police claim that a confession of the forgery has been made by the daughter Laura, although the mother and father maintain their innocence. J. McKinley Cameron has been retained to defend the trio and it is believed that they will plead not guilty despite the alleged confession.

Eagerness to buy a farm on which the family could retire are said to be the reasons of the daring forgeries both here and at Calgary. The checks alleged to have been used were stolen from Calgary militia headquarters and endorsements forged. The daughter has been a stenographer in the Calgary Armories for some time. Ninety-two checks were stolen from the armories office last fall and at this time the suspicion of the police first centred on this family. The daughter, it is alleged, has been committing forgeries wholesale since that time, using all kinds of companies' names as signatures. She was finally caught in the act of passing one by a sharp clerk in Calgary and arrested a few minutes later.

Since her confession to the police the girl has remained silent and seemed to possess the attitude of fear. Her mother has preserved a stony silence except for one moment at her preliminary trial when she denied ever having been in Edmonton. The father says nothing. The girl has beauty to a certain degree but her features are rather too sharp, though softer than her mother's.

BURIED YESTERDAY

Funeral of Four-Year-Old Dolly Wilson Was Largely Attended.

The funeral took place on Wednesday at 2:30 of Margaret Lorraine (Dolly), the four-year-old daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wilson. The very simple funeral service was conducted by Rev. T. H. Nuttall of the Methodist Church of which Dolly was a member of the Sunday School.

Many friends gathered at the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers in the bright spring sunshine in remembrance of the little life which had been given in its early childhood. The little white casket was covered with beautiful flowers sent by relatives and friends in different parts of the province, and was taken to its last resting place in Fairview Cemetery. The sympathy of all their friends goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson in the passing of their little one.

 IN THE LETTER BOX  WANTS LIBRARY

To the Editor:—
Some time ago you started to campaign for a public library in this city. I hope that you have not got cold feet for there's a lot of us who want it bad and we have no other way of getting books. In one of your articles you said that workingmen read more than richer people or something like that, but they can't read very much here for the price of books is going up and we can't get them without cash.

There's a many of us, what won't amount to much perhaps, but who likes to read although we can't write. Now for the sake of we chaps, sir, I hope you will rip right ahead and get us a library. It is what we need more than anything else in this town. Keep at it if you want to earn the gratitude of

SONS CANADA WON DYBHAVN WHIST TROPHY

Beat Oddfellows by Close Score in Play-off Game Last Night

In the play-off between the Sons of Canada and the Oddfellows for the Dybhavn Cup in the Whist League, the former team edged out with a 5 to 4 victory and are, therefore, the holders of the trophy for 1920. The whist season started on October 15 and has been going regularly on Wednesday nights since then, making an enjoyable evening's entertainment for the players.

This is the third year that this trophy has been up for competition. The winners in the first year were the Valhalla and last year it went to the Knights of Pythias. Through a series of spectacular wins the Sons of Canada came up to a tie with the Oddfellows this year who were leaders the most of the season. Finally last night another victory brought them the championship. The games have all been played in the Sons of Canada rooms in the Helgeson Block.

The players last night were: Oddfellows—A. W. Edge, Ben Crossett, James Hilliard, H. M. Daggett, Harry Love and W. G. Barrie.

Sons of Canada—Charles Embleton, Vic Menzies, Roi Barnes, Kenny Rood, W. D. Vance and Jack Donnelly.
