TRICK ARTIST MAKES WAGER

Will Forfeit $50 to the General Hospital if He Fails to Make Good.

Cecil Barrie, the trick artist at the Westholme, has accepted a challenge to get out of his "mystery box" under a wager with Mr. Hunt of this city. Last night on the platform he promised to forfeit $50 which should go to the local hospital in case he failed to make good. Mr. Hunt is to use thirty feet of his own rope to tie up the trunk which will also be locked in six places. Then Professor Barrie is to have irons on his ankles and wrists and his hands will be handcuffed to his ankles before he is put in the trunk. People are wondering if he will get out. This is Cecil Barrie's last night in town and no one, who is fond of conjuring tricks, should fail to see him.

The feature picture at the Westholme tonight is to show Tom Mix in a Fox production, "Ace High." This is the first time this star has been shown in Prince Rupert, but he has proved popular elsewhere. The story deals with the North West Mounted Police and is made in Canada. It will show many familiar scenes to those who have lived on the prairies.

This is a long program especially as there is to be a film of topical pictures.

The fine weather and bright, warm sunshine of the last week or two has made boat owners look to their craft and prepare for the spring cruising. Already some of their boats are out of the water, and others will be taken out very soon.

LAND REGISTRY ACT.

(Sections 36 and 134.)

Application No. 11365-1, File 6274.
TAKE NOTICE that application has been made to register David H. Hays, of Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner in fee under a tax Sale Deed from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert, bearing date the 23rd day of October, 1919, of ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Prince Rupert, more particularly known and described as Lot thirty (30), Block forty-two (42), Section eight (8), (Map 923). You are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 35 days from the date of the service of this notice (which may be effected by publication in the Daily News, Prince Rupert), and your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" with amendments, and to the following extract therefrom:—

"and in default of a caveat or certificate of his pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, and those claiming through or under them, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be for ever estopped and debarred from setting up claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

AND WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Infeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands, in the name of David H. Hays.

AND WHEREAS on investigating the title it appears that prior to the 10th day of October, 1908 (the date on which the said lands were sold for overdue taxes), you were the Crown Granted owner thereof.

FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Infeasible Title to the said lands in the name of David H. Hays, unless you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, in any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Prince Rupert, B. C., this 7th day of November, A. D. 1919.

H. F. MACLEOD,
District Registrar of Titles.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

THAT the lumber situation is getting to be this way says a Winnipeg paper: Every time a board is run through a Canadian sawmill a Yank is waiting at the end of the saw ready to grab it and make tracks.

THAT a local sage remarked on the street yesterday: "There is no weather equal to that in Prince Rupert when the sun is shining."

THAT many will rise to second the motion.

THAT even a pessimist may make a remark like that.

THAT it is only the optimist who says he likes it when the rain is falling at the rate of sixty bucketsful a second and the wind is blowing like Old Harry.

THAT already the lenten season is having the effect of making people pale and thin.

THAT if you convince a man he is wrong, you make an enemy of him from that time forward.

THAT he won't believe you even after you have convinced him.

THAT if the Morse Creek bridge is built this summer, the Section Two residents will be putting on all kinds of airs in the autumn.

THAT again the voice of the pessimist is heard asking "what bridge?"

THAT the printer's devil replies "a game of bridge."

THAT the Princeton Republican tells how "The maid of honor was gowning in a beautiful hat. She also carried opheelia roses."

THAT she was not what might be called overdressed.

THAT it is queer how history repeats itself. At one time a highwayman was quite respectable; today the Bolsheviks are asking for recognition.

THAT talking of coal discoveries, it is reported that a good sized lump was discovered among the slack in a recent load delivered in the city.

THAT if the currency is degraded much more we shall all go around paying our bills with lumps of coal or diamonds, or some other valuable commodity.

THAT everyone has been holding his breath looking for that great light Mr. Bowser was going to let in at Victoria.

THAT he was going to do something of the sort a year ago but no one seems to have noticed it.

THAT a London paper tells of some of the costumes having been stolen from a theatre.

THAT it would take a clever thief to steal the costumes from some of the actresses that appear on the stage.

THAT tonight Professor Cecil Barrie will get out of a trunk that has been tied with thirty feet of rope, six times locked, and with his wrists and ankles handcuffed and his Cockney voice muffled.

THAT he is a clever little guy, that same professor.

D. J. Hancock and M. P. Olsen will leave on tonight's steamer for a business trip in the south. Both are Alice Arm mining men.
