The good crowd of spectators who attended the football game between the Callies and the Trail Athletics at the Acropolis Hill grounds last Saturday afternoon augurs well for the patronage that will be given soccer games during the coming season. When a league has been organized this interest will be much more increased with competition between different teams playing for district qualification in the B. C. Amateur Football Association.

It will be necessary for organization work in the Prince Rupert League to commence early so that the schedule may be submitted to the B. C. Football Association which has its annual meeting in the middle of April. This will make it necessary for the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Amateur Football Association to be held somewhere about April 1. It is probable that the Prince Rupert League will this year consist of six teams, namely, Callies, Sons of England, Grand Trunk, Trail, Great War Veterans, and, in all probability a dry dock team.

There are no less than four handsome trophies to be won in football here this season. There are the City Cup, Exhibition Cup, Mobley Cup and Gilhuly Cup. The first three have all been played for before, but are not yet won. Each cup must be won twice in succession or three times in all. The Exhibition and City cups are now held by the S. O. E., having been won in the Cup tie-play-off last fall. As the head of the city league last year the Callies are the holders of the Mobley Cup. The Gilhuly football cup is a brand new trophy, having just been put up by Mr. Gilhuly. It will in all probability become the district qualifying cup.

With the winning and presentation of the Gilhuly Basketball Cup to the Dry Dock team the league schedule of games may be said to be concluded. There are a few more games left on the calendar but as they have no effect on the league standing it is not likely they will be played. With a match between the single men and the married men and the basketball trip to New Metlakatla, Alaska, the 1920 basketball season will be practically wound up. The desire, both on the part of players and spectators, is for outside sport now that spring seems to be well advanced. It is not likely, however, that any organized games, either in football or baseball will commence until well into the month of April, when conditions are settled.

The modern cattle thief does not wear chaps or ride a bucking broncho, but dons goggles and drives a motor truck. In Cataraugus county, New York, state troopers were informed by a live stock raiser that a valuable registered cow had been stolen from his farm. Investigation proved that the cow had been derrieked on an auto truck and driven away. The state troopers were on the trail within an hour after the cow had been lifted. They followed the imprint of the tire treads, and, after a chase lasting two hours, bagged the cow and her abductors.

The Callies made a new innovation on Saturday when they appeared on the football grounds with their pipe band to give them cheer and spur them forward in their dashes towards "Hunky" Shaw and the goal. The worst of it was that the pipe band didn't seem to spell athletic victory like it is said to affect men in battle. Ben Self said at the first of the game that if the Callies won the next time he brought his Trailers he would have a jazz band or Gray's orchestra or something like that. If Ben's going to have a "jazz-band" for his boys and S. D. Macdonald a pipe band, then it would be quite appropriate for Myhill-Jones to get a Welsh choir for the Sons, the G. W. V. A. a bugle band, the G. T. P. a bango band and it's almost certain that Bill Edmunds could scare up some "gazoos" for the Dry Dock.
