TRADING POST IN PLAY

Magnificent Scenes in Jewel Carmen Screen Drama.

A world of romance is centred about the trading posts of the far North. Many have wondered what they really look like and in the new play "The Girl with the Champagne Eyes," that William Fox has made and in which Jewel Carmen is the star, one is shown that is true to life. This play is to be seen at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

Great care was given to make real this scene in which men from the known world met the men from that which was unknown. There is a rough picturesqueness about these places that does not fail to attract. It is here that the girl of the play who had been a criminal in the land where her kind are so mercilessly hunted, begins her period of reformation and becomes the clean and pure element among those who are, for the most part, dissolute.

JUNE ELVIDGE IS AT THE EMPRESS

June Elvidge in "The Bluffer" is the picture play to be shown tonight and tomorrow at the Empress Theatre. It is a story with a strong appeal. June Elvidge is an actress who is a popular favorite. She shows to advantage in this play.

NO PROFITEERING WITH ZAM-BUK

Before the war, Zam-Buk was 50c. a box. All during the war, when the cost of production was rapidly advancing, the price of Zam-Buk to the consumer remained the same. Now, with the war over, while some prices continue to soar, Zam-Buk is still 50c. a box! Not only so, but the same high standard of quality has been maintained throughout.

There has been no profiteering in regard to Zam-Buk. For every box you have bought, you have been asked to pay fair value only.

Is this method of doing business not worthy of recognition? Answer this question by continuing to recommend, to appreciate, and to use Zam-Buk—the greatest household healer of modern times.

Use it for all skin troubles, eczema, ringworm, abscesses, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, blood-poisoning, chapped hands, cold sores, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, etc.

All Dealers, 50c. Box.

Sport Briefs

Football organization is going on apace. Already two clubs have met and appointed organizing committees and the others are working on their plans. The Great War Veterans have put a confident challenge to play any team in town and they will show next Saturday what kind of an aggregation they have to offer. They have a large field to choose from in selecting players, as the membership is large and a lot of the members took an active part in the football field before enlistment. If their members do not become attached to other clubs they should put up a formidable aggregation. The matter of affiliation is apt to cause trouble in arranging the different rosters.

Still we hear nothing of baseball organization. The managers are busy, however, and when they do start there is no doubt they will do something. The season is a little early as yet but the good players are pretty well sized up and it will not take long to get them together. The season will probably open with a smoker to obtain funds for working expenses and then they will be off. A week or so should bring forth some concrete plans in baseball circles for the 1920 season.

George Kennedy, prominent sporting promoter of Montreal, announced recently that his partner, Jack Curley, has signed a sixty-day contract with Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion, to give exhibition bouts in Canada. Carpentier will appear in Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and some of the western cities. A bout between Carpentier and Dempsey in France has been practically given up. It is the opinion of Descamps, the Frenchman's manager, that if the fight takes place it will be held in the United States. Descamps also states that the promoter who gets Dempsey to sign a contract will get the fight, as the French pugilist is not holding anything in the way and is only too anxious to have the fight.

A meeting of the American committee has been called for March 13 at New York and notices have been mailed to national associations supervising amateur sport, which will be represented at the international games at Antwerp. The manager of the Olympic is expected to be elected at the meeting and it is thought that this position will go to Matthew P. Halpin, of the New York Athletic Club, who successfully guided the American teams at Athens in 1906, at London in 1908, and at Stockholm in 1912.

The first detachment of greater New York's major league representatives is on its way south for spring training. Pitchers Al Mamaux, Clarence Mitchell and Harry Heitman, and Infielder Chuck Ward of the Brooklyn Dodgers, in company with a troupe of New York and Brooklyn newspapermen, sailed recently for Jacksonville, Florida. Managers Huggins, of the Yanks, and Wilbert Robinson, of the Dodgers, have planned to begin training this week. The main squad of the two teams will be leaving in a few days for the training fields.

Bishop Bunoz went south last night.
