VANCOUVER, CHINA, OR JAIL, BUT NOT HOME," LEE WONG

The trial of Lee Wong, the Chinese boy who broke the plate glass window in his father's store, was concluded before Judge Young yesterday afternoon. The boy was found guilty but was let out on suspended sentence, provided he goes home to his father, helps him and goes to school.

Dr. Cade, who gave the lad medical examination, was a witness yesterday. He testified that his right arm would probably be useless for life and he could never do any hard work. He could, however, do light duties about his father's store. The doctor said that it was quite possible that the pain of the inflamed and unhealthy elbow might at times make the boy peevish. The father who was in court said that he was willing to take the boy and look after him and pay for his schooling, but he did not want him to work in the store.

Must Report.

"I do not want to send you to jail," said the judge to the boy, "and am willing to let you out on suspended sentence. You are at liberty to go home with your father if you will do light duties about the house and go to school. I will see that Lee Nan, or nobody else but your father, will interfere with you. As for Lee Nan he had no business throwing you out and should be ashamed of himself. I wish he were here so I could lecture him about that. I want you to report to Chief Minty every week and tell him how things are going at home. If you have any complaints tell him about them. If you come here again you will go to jail. Are you willing to do as I say?"

Afraid to Go Home.

"No," said the accused, "I want to go to Vancouver."

"Well, you are not going to

NO PROFITEERING WITH ZAM-BUK

Before the war, Zam-Buk was $5c. a box. All during the war, when the cost of production was rapidly advancing, the price of Zam-Buk to the consumer remained the same. Now, with the war over, while some prices continue to soar, Zam-Buk is still 50c. a box! Not only so, but the same high standard of quality has been maintained throughout.

There has been no profiteering in regard to Zam-Buk. For every box you have bought, you have been asked to pay fair value only.

Is this method of doing business not worthy of recognition? Answer this question by continuing to recommend, to appreciate, and to use Zam-Buk—the greatest household healer of modern times.

Use it for all skin troubles, eczema, ringworm, abscesses, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, blood-poisoning, chapped hands, cold sores, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, etc.

All Dealers, 50c. Box.

Vancouver," from the judge, "unless you go to the penitentiary in care of a constable."

"Then I want to go to China."

"You are not going to China, either. You'll either stay at home and do as I say or go to jail."

"Send me to jail then rather than send me home," was the plea of the prisoner.

"You go home with your father and if I see you here again then I will think about sending you to jail," was the judge's decision with a final admonition to Lee Wong, Sr., that he would have to treat the boy right.

WHARFAGE FOR SMALL BOATS

Matter Discussed and recommendation Made at Board of Trade Meeting.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade last night a report on a proposal of Captain Freeman to secure better accommodation for small craft here, was discussed and it was decided to ask the Provincial Government to take into consideration the provision of such facilities when they were rebuilding the present dock, a work which it is understood will be taken in hand this year. The recommendation of the Railways, Navigation, and Port Committees follows:—

"Whereas the Provincial Government contemplates reconstructing and adding to the facilities at the government wharf; that the matter be taken up with them with a view to having proper facilities installed for the accommodation of small boats entering the harbor from outlying points; such facilities to include a derrick and hoist for handling cargo to and from the dock level, and ample float accommodation for mooring such vessels, and also provision in the building for waiting rooms and toilets for the accommodation of travellers using such craft. We think that if the matter was thoroughly gone into at the time the plans are under consideration, that ample facilities can be supplied at this site for the requirements of the trade referred to in Mr. Freeman's letter."

TWO GOOD PICTURES AT LOCAL THEATRES

There are two good pictures at the local theatres for the weekend. At the Westholme, Jewel Carmen in "The Girl with the Champagne Eyes" is a more than usually fine film. This is a Canadian picture and many of the scenes are Canadian. It deals largely with the trading posts of the north.

"The Bluffer" is a June Elvidge film and that is sufficient for the ordinary movie fan to be attracted.

There are comedies and news pictures at each house.

On the motion of G. W. Nickerson, seconded by M. P. McCaffery, a letter of thanks was ordered to be sent to C. C. Ballantyne congratulating him on having stuck to his guns in regard to the fisheries regulations. Letters will also be sent to Coy. C. W. Peck and Hon. T. D. Paitello thanking them for their work in connection with the same.
