FINE PICTURES AT WESTHOLME

One of Largest Crowds on Record
Attended Last Night.

Two big features brought out a great crowd to the Westholme Theatre last night, one of the biggest crowds on record. The high liner was Nazimova. The beautiful girl who plays the part of a Bedouin maid is instrumental in rescuing a French naval commander, for which she is condemned to death by her own people. She is left in the grave dug for the man she freed with no food and a small quantity of water. This has all gone when she is captured by another wandering band and sold to a French circus man in Tangiers.

In France she is recognized by the man she helped to escape and is freed from practical slavery by him and eventually becomes his bride.

The story is picturesque and in itself makes a good program. In addition, however, there is the latest big Chaplin film "A Day's Pleasure." Those who drive or ride in motor cars will particularly appreciate this picture as will also those who have been to sea on a rough day. There is no need to say it is extremely funny and clever.

One more feature of the program will be of great interest to those who love the outdoors. The outing pictures show angling for salmon in New Brunswick rivers and there is a fine film of live moose in their haunts in the same country.

CONCERTS HERE EVERY SUNDAY

Musical Events More Regularly.

Arrangements have been made by J. F. Maguire with the Westholme Theatre management to have Sunday evening concerts every week in future, instead of at irregular intervals. The new arrangement will commence on March 21 and a fine series of musical entertainments will be put on.

The proposal is to bring a number of Vancouver and Victoria artists here and to engage local talent. Mr. Maguire, as impresario, will give his services free and any profits over and above expenses will be given to securing more and better artists.

The program for the opening concert a week from Sunday has not been definitely arranged as it is not known if a Vancouver singer can be secured. If it is not possible to get outside talent, a special local feature will be secured, which, Mr. Maguire says, he is sure will prove attractive.

Mrs. Dalby Morkill will sing here on Easter Sunday and on either the Sunday before or after Easter, Miss Jennie Taggart is expected. It is expected to have an outside singer every Sunday.

The instrumental music will be provided by the Westholme orchestra augmented for the occasion, and members of the symphony orchestra and other local organizations will all take part. The new series will not interfere with the Symphony Orchestra concerts, which will continue as usual.
