

Suits that are pressed frequently and cleaned occasionally wear 25 to 50 per cent longer.

How to make your old suit last

"It is not every man that can afford to wear a shabby coat," Robert Colton once wrote.

The words hold as true now as when first written, three-quarters of a century ago.

Nevertheless it is needful today to make the old suit last—though not at the expense of becoming tattered.

Between the costliness of clothing at the one extreme, and shabbiness of them at the other, there is a middle ground where economy and good appearance meet.

Our modern dry cleaning establishment is this middle ground. Here our experienced cleaners can tune up your old clothes and preserve your new.

Every person realizes the business advantage and the social value of clothes well cleaned and neatly pressed, but there is more in these details than improvement of "looks" alone.

Ask your tailor or your clothier. They will inform you that apparel frequently pressed, and cleaned at intervals of two or three months, will wear from 25 to 50 per cent longer than clothes that are not so considerably cared for.

There is a sound reason for this. You wash your linen when it becomes soiled—it is a matter of self-respect and personal hygiene, of course, but it is also true that if left unwashed your shirts would wear out much more quickly.

Perspiration, oils, grease, and fruit juices have a corrosive effect; dust and dirt have a grinding action—your outer clothing needs purging of these equally as much as does your linen.

The cleansing gasoline baths used in our dry cleaning process, and the pressing of the presser, with hot steam working through the fabric, have a sterilizing action—your apparel is made, by our scientific treatment of each garment, as immaculate outside as inside, it keeps its shaper better, and is saved from tell-tale shininess.

Your old suit will last longer, and your new suit will do double duty if you will more frequently use our modern cleaning and pressing service, which is specially organized to meet your individual needs.

Get started on the road to clothes economy. We offer you prompt delivery and all the advantages of our up-to-the-minute dry cleaning methods. Telephone us today.

DIVORCE BILL INTRODUCED

Read a First Time in the Senate, Fathered by Victoria Senator.

A new divorce bill is now before Parliament and seems likely to become law. It was introduced into the Senate by Senator G. H. Barnard of Victoria on March 2, and read a first time.

The measure provides for uniform divorce laws for the whole Dominion, making the highest court in each province or territory the body before which cases shall be tried. This law will not materially affect the province of British Columbia where already there is a divorce law in effect and the Supreme Court of the province tries all cases.

The bill provides that any marriage may be dissolved for:

- (a) Adultery; or,
- (b) Bigamy; and may be declared null and void,—

(a) At the suit of the injured party, for the incurable physical impotence of a party to a marriage which existed at the time of the marriage;

(b) For duress, coercion or want of consent, at the suit of the injured party, unless such party has by his conduct confirmed the marriage;

(c) For kindred within the degrees prohibited by the laws of the province now in force which are applicable thereto; provided, however, that no marriage shall be declared null and void because the woman is a sister of a deceased wife of the man or a daughter of a sister of the deceased wife of the man;

(d) For insanity, at the time of the marriage, of either of the parties thereto;

(e) At the suit of the husband, when the wife is pregnant at the time of the marriage by a man other than the husband, if the husband was ignorant of the pregnancy, by his conduct confirmed such marriage;

(f) At the suit of the injured party, when the other party willfully refuses to consummate the marriage.

Provided, however, that no marriage shall be declared null and void after the death of one of the parties thereto unless such marriage was void ab initio.

The bill also provides that newspapers shall not be allowed to publish details of the case during trial and only after the trial at direction of the court.

Being a private member's bill, it is possible that it may not pass the two houses of Parliament. It will not be discussed along party lines and it is probable the members of the Government will divide on the question, the Catholic members generally opposing and the Protestant members favoring.

WALLACE REID IN A FINE COMEDY-DRAMA

Wallace Reid will appear at the Westholme Theatre tonight in what is said to be one of the fastest and most highly entertaining comedy-dramas of his career. "You're Fired!" is the characteristic title. The picture is an adaptation by Clara G. Kennedy, of one of O. Henry's best stories.

It is a highly colorful production and is guaranteed to keep any audience smiling, the comedy being of a delightful and refreshing nature. There are also several dramatic situations, the most impressive of which is the foiling by the hero of an attempt by a trio of crooks to steal an important document belonging to the father of the girl, whom the hero wants to marry, and which is much desired by an unscrupulous business rival of the father.

Wallace Reid plays the role of a young man upon whom is imposed the difficult task of holding a job for three months without being fired, as a condition precedent to his marrying the daughter of a financier and railroad owner. The fun comes in when he is discovered by his sweetie, who he has promised the father shall not know of their agreement; first as a xylophone player in an orchestra and later as part of the atmosphere in a little old Italian restaurant, and is unable to explain to her why he is engaged in such trivial work.

INDIAN LANDS UP IN HOUSE

Bill Introduced to Permit Government to Negotiate With Province.

(Special by G. T. P. Telegrams)

OTTAWA, March 15.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, minister of the interior, introduced a bill into the House of Commons dealing with Indian lands in the province of British Columbia. In 1912 a Royal Commission was appointed to report on differences between the governments of the Dominion and British Columbia in respect to Indian lands.

It had been found impossible to ratify the findings of the commission. The bill is to enable the Government to negotiate with the Government of British Columbia in order to reach a conclusion on the basis of the findings of the commission with certain modifications.

The Prince Albert sailed for Vancouver via south Queen Charlotte Island points at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. The gold ore, which it was expected to take on at Stewart, was not aboard as the scow holding it was high and dry on the tide flats at that port. The Prince John left Vancouver for the north on Friday night and should be here tomorrow some time. She will make the trip to Stewart on Wednesday, connecting with the Prince Rupert.
