City by Mrs. M. J. Flynn.

A letter has been received from Mrs. M. J. Flynn of Brooklyn, New York, saying that through an advertisement in the Daily News she has been able to locate her brother who, she finds, is now living at Oklahoma City.

A short advertisement was sent to this paper asking for information in regard to Joe O'Donnell. A copy of the paper was read in Hyder by someone who knew him and who answered the advertisement with good results.

SNOW IS MELTING FAST AT STEWART

The Prince John arrived from Stewart this morning with a number of passengers. They report that the snow is melting quickly and that Premier ore is still coming down. The John did not bring any ore out although there are 200 tons waiting at the beach. She left this morning for Port Clements and Masset and on her return will unload 200 tons of coal for this city.

K. L. Rauk returned to Vancouver last night. He will spend some months in the south before returning to Prince Rupert.

LAND REGISTRY ACT (Sections 36 and 134.)

Re Application No. 11484-1. File 6304.

"and in default of a caveat or certificate of his pending being filed before the registration is open of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, or under them, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and of any persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be for ever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Infeasible Title to the said lands in the name of Stephen B. WHY IS IT that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers of Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 59c. box, 3 for $1.25.

IRISH CARICATURE

To the Editor:—
Regarding the St. Patrick's concert, I beg leave to give credit where credit is due. For clean, well rendered and up to date amateur work many numbers on the program were highly creditable. The costuming, stage setting and rendition of "God Save All Here" was highly entertaining. Miss Patricia Meagher's "Bells of St. Mary" for a novice was excellent. Miss Curtin's number and also that of Mr. Edmunds were professional in character and rendition. Mr. Fletcher's encore in the "Irish Love Song" could hardly be surpassed. For volume of musical effect, heart stirring resonance Mr. Gillies Couture deserves the palm. The artistic display of the little dancing wonders was marvellous.

Coming to the last number on the program I would like to draw the curtain. From a country that has furnished so many brilliant stars that shine out to the world as beacon lights to past generations, for thrilling examples of heroism to present generations and to whom future generations will sing their praises down to the end of time, such as the few following may be mentioned: President Marshal McMahon of France, Wellington of Waterloo, Kitchener of Khartoum, Roberts of South Africa, O'Connell, Emmet, Burke, Parnell and De Valera of Ireland; Sherman, Sheridan, Harrison and McKinley of the United States, while the names in the arts, sciences and literature of Irish sons are legion.

The Last Act

Why the closing number of the St. Patrick's night concert for 1920 should be dramatized in the role of an unnaturally produced Irish character of the most menial type surprises my comprehension, unless it be that the talent supplied could not reach to the eminence to be attained in presenting characters of such world renown or perhaps they are entirely unfamiliar with such history or the history of Irish descendants. Such buffoonery as the last act of St. Patrick's concert is an insult to the memory of the great men that Ireland has produced—an insult to every intelligent descendant of Irish origin, an insult to the intelligence of every student of Irish life at home and abroad. Is it not time to boycott such rottenness, lies, buffoonery and ignorance by intelligent audiences, when called upon to pay admission to entertainment. England, Scotland, France, nor Germany do not meanly caricature their own descendants and why should Irish sons allow their fair fame to be despoiled by poltroonery.

G. A. Woodland left for Ocean Falls on the Prince Rupert last night.

R. Wooldridge, the Graham Island timber man, left for the south last night.

W. S. Fisher, provincial tax collector, left on a business trip for Masset and Port Clements this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and family left this morning for Masset on the Prince John. They arrived from Vancouver on the last boat, Mrs. Martin and the children having spent the winter in the south. Mr. Martin is the storekeeper at Masset. He went south about six weeks ago and had an attack of influenza while there.

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

The removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.
