A CAMP IN THE FOREST

My fragrant couch of balsam boughs
On mossy sward is spread,
'Neath sheltering "fly" that ne'er allows
The chill draught near my head.

Deep darkness o'er the forest falls
Investing it in gloom;
The cedar; boles, like giant walls,
Enclose me in a tomb.

The twinkling stars shine high
O'er all;
The crescent moon lies pale,
And velvet silence, like a pall,
Enshroudeth hill and dale.

The yapping coyote only makes
The stillness more complete;
The throb of yonder cascade
Shakes
The earth beneath my feet.

A heap of pine logs, gummy, dry,
I've stacked my camp before:
Their ruddy flames now leap on high,
And fleck my auberge o'er.

Beyond the circle of their blaze
Dark shapes and shadows bland
A horned owl, with eyes adaze,
Flits ghostly round the bend.

Black "billy" brews the tea at last,
My beans and bacon sizz;
I sit me down to my repast,
And leave the King to him.

IN THE LETTER BOX

NOT AN INSULT

To the Editor—

In your issue of the 19th Irishman gives vent to what may really be disappointment cleverly camouflaged. No right thinking Irishman ever was insulted by anything given in aid of charities or for the benefit of schools, etc., and most certainly those famous men mentioned by "Irishman" would not consider the portrayal of "That Rascal Pat" as an insult to them. Poltroonery may well be applied to his letter unless some more valid reason is forthcoming. Credit to whom credit is due is applicable and merited by the whole company.

"DISINTERESTED."

W. E. Collison of Prince Rupert has been appointed to be district registrar of births, deaths and marriages for Indians only for the Naas River agency. The appointment is gazetted this week.

WATER NOTICE.

DIVERSION AND USE.

TAKE NOTICE that M. P. Olsen, whose address is Alice Arm, B. C., will apply for a licence to take and use 50 cubic feet and to store about 400 acre-feet of water out of Clearwater River which flows southerly and drains into the Kitsault River about 22 miles from the head of the river of Alice Arm.

The storage-dam will be located near natural outlet of Clearwater Lake. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 450 acre-feet, and it will flood about 50 acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at storage dam and will be used for power for mining purposes upon the mine described as the Lithmax Group.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 26th day of January, 1920.

A copy of this notice and an application assent thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914," will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Prince Rupert, B. C. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

M. P. OLSEN, Applicant.

The date of the first publication of this notice is February 5, 1920.

The above represents the number of years spent in fruitless efforts to cure a bad case of eczema with ordinary ointments, compared with the time it took Zam-Buk to effect a complete and permanent cure.

This was the experience of Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 East Broadway, Portland, Ore. Writing to the Zam-Buk Co., he says: "For fifteen years I suffered with a bad case of eczema, and used all kinds of so-called 'cures' and treatments, but nothing was capable of curing me until I tried Zam-Buk. This wonderful balm, however, completely cured me in less than a year, and not only so, but I have had no return of the disease. I strongly recommend Zam-Buk to anyone afflicted as I was."

This is but one of the hundreds of cases where Zam-Buk has effected a cure when everything else failed. The reason is easily explained. Zam-Buk being unusually refined—containing absolutely no animal fats or mineral drugs such as are contained in ordinary ointments—is capable of penetrating to the underlying tissues where skin diseases have their roots. Ordinary ointments, on the contrary, never get beyond the surface skin and so are incapable of effecting permanent cures.

Zam-Buk is just as good for salt rheum, ringworm, boils, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT it is all very well for Scotchmen to go on quoting Shakespeare to the effect that "a man's a man for a' that," but the manager of this paper says he knows better. He says there are a lot of people who are not man enough to pay their subscriptions on time.

THAT if it wasn't Shakespeare who said it, it was some other Scotchman.

THAT the manager says he believes in the old theology, else how are the delinquents going to be punished.

THAT this is the latest from a contemporary moonshiner: To market, to market To buy a fat pig. Home again, home again, With half a pound of codfish.

THAT the same contemporary says that a western man has been away from home for eight years and nobody knows where he is. As an afterthought he adds: "Maybe he's in parliament!"

THAT all good young people had better stay away from the Theatre on Wednesday night.

THAT the show is said to be worse than a bathing beach.

THAT a news despatch suggests the session of the Dominion Parliament may close by the middle of May.

THAT no one would care if they closed up now.

THAT if they closed at once they might forget to collect the income tax.

THAT the pan-German party has failed in Germany. Now it is the turn of the can-German party.

THAT a murder trial was postponed in Quebec the other day because the prisoner had no clean collar to wear.

THAT these murder judges are always careful about the necks of prisoners.

THAT usually they prescribe hempen collars.

THAT the absence of men from the morning services on Sunday is said to be due to the fact that they are painting the boat.

THAT the moderation party want more beer and stronger beer.

THAT the most common word in their vocabulary is "Come-aveadrink."

The mayor reported at last night's council meeting that the city auditor has completed his work and returned to Vancouver. His report, however, has not yet been received.

The Camp Cooking Revealed This

On Saturday we had a party from a lady in New Westminster who asks that her name be omitted.

She said they discovered Pacific Milk while she was on her husband in a camp summer, where no fresh milk was to be had.

It made such delicious fine grained cakes and breads and at less cost than kept on using it when she came back to town.

She says "Always ready at least half with cold water."
