Sport Briefs

Terrace has jumped right into the sport ring again after having been inactive for some years. Now that their boys are back from the front and many new ones are coming in, the spring weather has done the rest. Last week they not only formed a baseball association but also have started a band. The new baseball club has as its manager D. F. Robinson and Mr. McGrath secretary. With the number of new players to draw upon the club will have a creditable baseball lineup and they look forward to having some well contested games this summer with outside teams. All the old regalia and uniforms are being gathered up again. W. C. Sparkes and L. H. Kenny are president and secretary respectively of the band.

Terrace seems to have taken the lead for the whole district in baseball lines in announcing its organization. There doesn't seem to be a word about sport of any kind at other points and not much of an idea can be gained as to what they will have to show. Even Prince Rupert seems to have gone dead in a sporting way. This is no doubt due to the past week's wintry looking weather. Outside of Ben Self stating that he is going to set the ball rolling soon, nothing is mentioned officially about baseball. No doubt it will start with a rush when it does start, however. The time is getting ripe for organization work and we ought to see some pretty soon.

A California magistrate struck a new note recently when he jailed a motor car for speeding and allowed the speeders to go free. There are great possibilities in this line of reasoning. For a five day period at least that motor car was out of harm's way and the owner presumably not having a second car, would also be safe for a like period of time. On the second offence the magistrate might fine the car one tire and if it still persisted in hitting it up a second tire might be pinched and so on until finally his honor would have a complete car.

Large sums of money are being offered and paid for the transfer of players from one club to another in the old country leagues. The South Shields Club, members of the second division of the English League, recently received offers of $50,000 for the transfer of three of their players, but the officials of the club refused to make the deal.

Harry Kinghorn, who used to play football here in the Grand Trunk Pacific 1913 team when the only field was on Second Ave., is making quite a name for himself in Junior Scottish football as a goal keeper. Playing with the Arncliffe Rangers against the Dalkeiths, in which game the former were successful, the Scottish Weekly Record said: "Harry Kinghorn, the old Leith-Sheffield Wednesday goalkeeper, was commandeered together with three other veterans. And oh, how those 'auld yins' stuck in. The quartette had much to do with Dalkeith's humiliation—that's really what their 4 to 1 defeat amounts to. Don't be surprised if Kinghorn is asked to fall in again, as he is a quite good centre forward." Harry Kinghorn is a brother of Abe Kinghorn who is to play with the Callies in the Prince Rupert F. A. this season.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT if it should prove that the British Government's two-parliament scheme for Ireland fails, the question will arise how many parliaments would be likely to suit the Irish. A separate parliament for every Irish citizen and another for his wife seems to be the only suitable plan.

THAT the "Old Timer" says he remembers when most of the people here lived in tents and the children played tag on the muskeg. Happy, happy days! No paving question, no sewerage question, no local Irish question, high tax rate or extortionate assessment.

THAT another "old timer" says he has no children to play on the muskeg, no rig to drive on the pavement, no house where a sewer is needed, he is no Irishman, he has nothing to assess and he doesn't care a goll darn for anybody.

THAT a contemporary wants to know whether the ouija board causes insanity or insanity causes the ouija board.

THAT Tom Moore says Bolshevism is dying. Now everyone is putting crepe on his front door.

THAT it might be well to hold the funeral at once in case the monster should again come to life.

THAT if the Pickford divorce is upset, whose wife will Mary be?

THAT Little Mary had a hubby. She loved him much they say. Now she's gone and married Duggie And says that he's O. K.

THAT some people in town are reported to be jealous at the arrival of a larger tanker.
