Strike Said to Be Definitely Broken

Twenty-five Leaders under Arrest, Many Returning to Work and Freight Moving; Discussion as to Red Activities

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
CHICAGO, April 17.—After revoking the charters of three lodges of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, two in Chicago and one in San Francisco, A. F. Whitney, vice-president of the brotherhood, ordered all striking members of the organization in Chicago terminal district to return to work by midnight, or suffer expulsion from the union and lose seniority.
With 25 leaders of the insurgent forces under arrest in Chicago charged with violation of the Lever Act, the movement of livestock and freight is appearing normal and with the return of many strikers to duty, railroad chiefs and brotherhood officers declare the walkout, which started more than two weeks ago, definitely broken.

FORBIDDEN STRIKE ON MONTREAL HERALD

Paper Appears in Curtaild Form Owing to Trouble.
(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
MONTREAL, April 17.—The Montreal Star appears today in curtailed size owing to the fact that the typographical staff struck without warning. Enough men decided not to go out to enable the paper to be printed. The work was supplemented by type set on instructions of officials of the Typographical Union, who have forbidden the strike, at other printing offices here.

President Wilson posed for more than five minutes for motion picture men a few days ago as he was leaving the White House grounds for an automobile ride with his wife. The picture shows him somewhat thinner than before his illness.

New State of Sonora Will Ask Recognition from U.S.; Troops Invade Sinaloa

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
AGUA PREITA, Sonora, April 17.—The state of Sonora will apply to the United States for recognition as a belligerent. The republic of Sonora troops today continued marching toward Culiacan, the capital of the adjoining state of Sinaloa, by which move they wrestled the aggressive Carranza troops sent to force Sonora's re-entry into the Mexican federation of states.
Military authorities say that Sonora success in Sinaloa would give the seceding state the military power necessary to overcome any force President Carranza might send against them. Four towns in Sinaloa have fallen before the invading Sonora troops.

TROLLING BOAT ON THE ROCKS AT SKIDEGATE

Nobody Aboard the Little Craft "Macduff" but Name Abel Edwards in Papers.
Chief Minty of the provincial police department received a telegram this morning from the telegraph operator at Queen Charlotte City as follows:—"Trolling boat Macduff found on rocks near Aliford Bay with no one on board. She sailed in from direction of Rupert this morning with sails set and was found on rocks about noon."
Some papers with name Abel Edwards were found and clock had been recently wound, and it appears that whoever was aboard had fallen overboard, as everything is intact, including dory and anchor.

AMENDMENT TO G. T. BILL VOTED DOWN IN HOUSE

Mackenzie King Wants Protection Given to Employees of Railway in Arbitration Proceedings.
OTTAWA, April 17.—After speaking for two hours, Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party in Canada and in the House of Commons, submitted an amendment to the Grand Trunk bill. The amendment provides for a clause in the acquisition agreement stipulating that any pension rights held by the Grand Trunk men prior to the strike of July, 1910, be not affected by strike or any circumstances growing out of a strike.
Hon. C. J. Doherty criticized Mr. King for not introducing his "talismanic clause" last session before the terms of the agreement were settled. He said that every possible opportunity would be given the men to place their claims before the arbitration board.
Mr. King's amendment was declared lost and progress was then reported on the bill and the House adjourned at 1:30 a.m.

They refused to act as domestic servants at the college.

$12,500,000 IS PROPOSED FOR CIVIL SERVICE

One Sixth of Amount Voted and Matter Will Come up for Further Discussion.
(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
OTTAWA, April 16.—A motion to provide $12,500,000 for civil service bonuses was introduced into the House of Commons by the minister of finance, Hon. N. W. Rowell said it was designed to meet the abnormally high cost of living due to the war. He also stated that the time was coming soon when the bonus system would have to be stopped and salaries paid in one sum.
After a long discussion, in which the increases were criticized, the House agreed to the passing of one-sixth of the amount, the custom followed in regard to ordinary estimates. This leaves the matter open for further discussion.

PENSIONS ARE DISCUSSED IN OTTAWA HOUSE

Col. Peck Emphasizes Importance of Caring for Pensioners' Children.
(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
OTTAWA, April 17.—The special House Committee on pensions and Soldiers' Re-establishment held its first sitting at which Col. John Thompson, chairman of the Pensions Board, made a general statement. In 1919 Canada's pension bill was over $16,500,000 and by March, 1920, the total was $23,000,000. In all 175,906 people were receiving pensions. Of these, 70,950 were disabled soldiers and 41,283 children of disabled soldiers. Dependents of disabled soldiers excluding children number 17,725.
The number of totally disabled soldiers pensioned was 2,370 in class one disability. Soldiers down with affections of the respiratory system numbered about 10,000 and these were 100 per cent tubercular.
Allowances were made to a pensioner's children while he lived. They should be continued after the pensioner met death.
Col. Peck said the point raised was very important. He told of a man who married after being discharged from the English army. He died, but his wife received no pension.

NEW SCALE ANNOUNCED

Ottawa Reports Receipt of Finding of Local Board.
(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
OTTAWA, April 17.—A new scale of wages for employees of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., Prince Rupert, B. C., is recommended in a report of the Board of Conciliation, which investigated the demands of the men. The Board recommends 67 1/2 cents per hour for an eight-hour day instead of 60c, 80c an hour for overtime instead of 70 cents, and 85 cents an hour for Sundays and holidays instead of 75 cents.
The increases take place as from February 24, 1920.
In addition the Board recommends payment of a bonus of $1 per week to employees working in freezers and cold storage rooms.
