IS ACQUITTED OF TIPPERARY MURDER

Jury Trial Releases John Madden on Sergeant Brady Murder Affair.

DUBLIN, April 24.—John Madden, charged with the murder of Sergeant Brady at Lorry, Tipperary, last September, was acquitted by the court today, the Lord Chief Justice expressing his approval of the jury's verdict. A remarkable demonstration followed the announcement of the court's action. County Tipperary was placed under martial law for some months as a result of this murder.

NOT DECIDED IF OFFICIALS WILL BE TRIED

Irish Attorney-General Does not Commit Himself on Question.

(Special via G.T.P. Telegraphs.)

LONDON, April 26.—The question has been raised in Commons as to whether the persons accused of murder in the jury's verdict over the body of Lord Mayor MacCurtain will be brought to trial or not. Speaking on the question, Right Honorable Denis Henry, the Irish attorney-general, said that he would consider the matter as soon as a report of the evidence submitted before the coroner was made.

Mr. Henry said that as it was a matter affecting public service, he could give no further information as to whether the government had proof that Mayor MacCurtain was murdered by his secret secretary if this evidence was not produced at the inquest.

Charges of wilful murder were brought in by the coroner's jury investigating the death against Lord French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Ian MacPherson, late secretary treasurer for Ireland, Acting Inspector General Smith, of the Royal Ship Constabulary, and other officials.

NEW POLICY FOR IRELAND

Sir Hamar Greenwood to Make Clean Sweep at Dublin Castle.

(Special via G.T.P. Telegraphs.)

LONDON, April 26.—It is stated again that shortly after Lloyd George's return from San Remo a new policy will be initiated in regard to Ireland which will have as its primary object the creation of more peaceful and friendly relations.

Starting with the resignation of Lord French, a clean sweep will be made in Dublin Castle officially.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, the new secretary, is regarded as the exponent of a new policy of conciliation.

Speaking at Sunderland, Sir Hamar said: "I have the fullest powers the chief secretary ever enjoyed." It is said he is out to employ the jails, not to fill them.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

THAT "Flees in Father's Pants" was the headline over a newspaper story telling of the elopement of a girl wearing her father's clothes.

THAT the stockings girls wear these days are about as thin as a slice of boarding house ham.

THAT speaking of boarding reminds me that the American soldiers who served in the Canadian army claim the cost of living is twenty per cent higher in the States than in Canada.

THAT plenty of people have brains, of a kind, but they do not know how to use them.

THAT practical education is what we want.

THAT the baseball boys are lining up in Prince Rupert.

THAT it would look on paper, as if Ben Self had all the talent there is on the coast corralled.

THAT in spite of this there may possibly be another player or two left for the other teams.

THAT the only thing the matter with Prince Rupert ball fans is they do not consume enough peanuts nor chew enough gum.

THAT baseball and peanuts are bound up with each other so closely that one cannot exist without the other.

THAT some people wonder what the writer of the hymn meant when he wrote "men and angels sing."

THAT it is understood some women take it in a personal sense.
