DAILY EDITION. Thursday, April 29, 1920.

Step Forward in National Development.

Step by Step Canada is moving forward toward the status of full nationhood. The latest move to have a direct consular representative at Washington is one that has excited some comment both in Europe and on this continent. The Seattle Times dealing with the subject editorially says:—

"The neighboring Dominion is seeking 'recognition' from the United States as a separate and sovereign nation.

"It desires to establish independent diplomatic relations with this republic, with the dispatch, to Washington, of a minister.

"Its aspiration is declared not to be opposed by Great Britain and only the formal consent of the United States is necessary to a realization of its hopes.

"The appearance at Washington of a Canadian minister will be followed, it is predicted, by the stationing there of diplomatic representatives by Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India.

"If any or all of the self-governing British Dominions desire to send their own ministers to the United States, there is no visible reason why this country should object.

"The matter is one which primarily concerns them and Great Britain. If there is agreement in the Empire on this course, no reason suggests itself that would justify a refusal on the part of America to receive these diplomats.

"There is no question as to the stability of the Canadian government. Any minister who might be named would be the spokesman for a government as sturdy and as well-grounded as our own.

"That this procedure constitutes an innovation in the conduct of the British Empire's foreign affairs is a matter of only passing interest to this country.

"Whenever Canada knocks and asks admission to the sisterhood of sovereign states, whether now or later, America certainly should be among the first to welcome it."

Back to Jail to Escape Living Costs.

The story of the man in the United States who scaled the walls of the penitentiary in order to get back into his cell where he could escape the high cost of living, is a pretty little tale but it illustrates a big truth. It shows to what extremes the prices of everything have gone and it should be a warning that things cannot remain so. Already there is a tightening of the money market and no one can say how long the present condition will last.

Naturally people are uneasy at the abnormal conditions. It is natural that workingmen should be worried and tha temployers should be timid. No one knows what is going to happen tomorrow, commercially. There is no reason to be fearful, only careful. It must always be borne in mind that the present condition cannot last very long.

Lumber Industry Important Here.

The lumber industry is very important to this place. Not only have we our own big mill and the mill at Georgetown, but all up the line there are a string of sawmills that circulate a lot of money and help to make business. On the Queen Charlotte Islands, too, there are a number of mills running and they are all tributary to Prince Rupert.

In today's News F. L. Buckley tells of his big mill at Buckley Bay and he still has an idea of further extensions in the way of a re-saw plant and box factory not far from here. All these things help to make the place busy.

THE TORTURES OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 OTTAWA ST., HULL, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again.

One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives" the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

TRAIN BEAT PLANE IN RACE YESTERDAY

Actor Failed to Overtake C. P. A. Flier and Had to Wait the Next.

VANCOUVER, April 29.—There was an anti-climax to the story sent out yesterday in regard to the race with the train by an aeroplane to Agassiz. The C. P. R. reported later that Aviator Trim and his passenger did not reach Agassiz until 12:5, half an hour after the C. P. R. eastbound train had left, and the plane set out for Vancouver on its return journey. Ludlow, the actor, was forced to travel by the next train to Calgary.

Mining News

SILVER CAP BONDED

George J. Hammond, president of the Natural Resources Exploration Co. of Vancouver, has made the first payment of the $50,000 bond on the Silver Cap Group of Alice Arm and for the past two weeks a crew of men have been working on the ground. Those associated with the enterprise state that the values of the claim run very high, some picked samples running 900 ounces to the ton. The Silver Cap was discovered by Walter Walker, of Alice Arm.

Busy at Nome.

Mining in the Nome section has been active this year according to the Nome Nuggett. Upwards of 20 outfits were engaged during the winter prospecting or mining within a radius of 15 miles of the far north town. Some of them are working on pay dirt but the majority of them are looking for the elusive paystreak in what are considered likely spots. Among the scenes of operation are Penny Creek, Cripple River, Jess Creek, Sonora Creek, Sunset Creek Monument Creek, Rock Creek, Glacier Creek, Anvil Creek, Triple Creek, Grass Gulch and Dry Creek.

* * *

Princeton Platinum.

"The Tulameen River near Princeton in the Similkameen country is the platinum centre in British Columbia," says John P. McConnell, the Sun mining writer, "and if the deposits were worked would probably make a world's record of production. The development of the industry in that district would necessitate development work of great extent. The Tulameen River gravel appears to be rich in this metal as well as gold and already it has been mined to a small extent. It has been ascertained that the proportions of platinum and gold obtained have been about equal in weight. There is every reason to believe that a lode of platinum in native form exists somewhere near the Tulameen. Incidentally it is interesting to note that diamonds have been discovered in that section of fine quality but too small for commercial purposes."

Strike in Slocan.

Another strike similar to that at Alice Arm has broken out in the Slocan country and with like results. A notification was received from Secretary Roberts of the O. B. U. that an increase of $1 per day would be demanded on May 1. The operators of the Slocan mines at a meeting at New Denver decided that the raise would be refused if it meant the closing down of the properties. The demands are also said to call for free blankets and white sheets. It is said that the O. B. U. is in a position to tie up the whole Kootenay mining industry if it chooses to call out its men.
