OF PROTEST

Gathering on Saturday Night in Mointyre Hall.

On Saturday evening in the McIntyre Hall a mass meeting of anniversary of May 1 which has now been set aside throughout the Dominion as a demonstration day. Attention was also drawn to the needs of the wives and children of the imprisoned labor leaders in Winnipeg and a fund was started to aid in sending a test case to England. At the close of the speeches the following resolution was passed unanimous-

"Whereas for no other crime than loyalty and devotion to the working class movement, eight of our comrades are today serving time in the provincial prisons of Manitoba, convicted on the clarge of seditious conspiracy and common nuisance (in our opinion a judicial interpretation of a successful general strike conducted by the Trades Unions of the city of Winnipeg during the months of May and June, 1919) and whereas if this infamous conviction is to be upheld and enforced he labor movement of Canada is attacked at its base. Any indi-Skidegate, B. #### Alderman Casey.

Alderman George Casey was the first speaker of the evening and before passing to the subject of the convictions explained the difference between May & and the first Monday in September. In felling of the Calgary Convention the speaker stated that he had many associations with some of the men now in jail. At the time of the great conference he felt that there were no acts of conspiracy but the regular business of such a gathering was carried on, namely to further, perfect the working bases of union men. I during the strike crisis of last year a general strike had been called here then this would have put the local strike committee on the same par as the men who are now held in the Manitoba jail. Mr. Casey felt that the whole matter was an absurdity and if there was any conspiracy it was mostly on the part of the guardians o the law.

Representing Internationals. In his opening remarks W. Thompson explained that he was there representing the international labor movement. He un- met. derstood that the meeting had been called to offer assistance to the wives and children of the im- Shaughnessy Heights, have stayprisoned men and that he was ing with them their daughter, Mrs. not prepared to speak upon the A.L. H. Borroughs.

The last speaker was J. H. Burrough who gave a very detailed and careful study of all the issues at stake in the big strike of a year ago. He pointed lout how successful had been the efforts of the strikers in getting control of the city and pointed to Stewart and Alexander Finnie of Prince as sufficient proof.
