The first intimation outside of the article appearing in The World a few weeks ago announcing that plans for the expenditure of some $300,000 for the conand lots of property are destroyed verting one of the sheds into a double-deck structure for the purpose of storing salmon, was made at last night's meeting of the local branch of the Canadian Fisheries Association.

F. E. Burke, president, explained that he had every reason to believe that the government would view the proposal of the fish menwith favor. He thought that the case made out by the fish men was a very sound one and that a favorable impression was created in the minds of the harbor commissioners.

"It was not until we had gone fully into the matter," he said, "that we realized the possibilities in the enterprise.
