"EVEN AS EVE" TONIGHT AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

A fierce fight is staged between a dog and a man in a cave deep in the rocks in the First National picture, "Even As Eve," taken from "The Shining Band," one of Robert W. Chambers' famous stories. The picture will be shown at the Westholme.

Eileen, a beautiful girl, brought up in the wilds of the Adirondacks, far from the haunts of men, keeps a strong box in the cave with treasure and secret papers committed to her by her father, just before he died. He does not reveal the contents, but tells her they are important and not to let any one get hold of them.

One night she is followed to the cave by a false prophet of a fanatical band, the leader of which knows of the existence of the papers and is trying to secure them. He attacks her in the cave and secures the treasure. However, her screams have been heard by a young doctor, who spends the summers in a club house nearby. He and his dog, a great shepherd, rush to the rescue. The dog arrives first and launches straight at the man's throat. He hurls him to the ground and is tearing him to pieces when the man reaches a bit of rock and stuns the dog. He is about to crush the dog's skull when Lansing arrives and Eileen and the treasure are saved.

The story of how Eileen, the little woodland girl, enters society is one of fascinating interest.

Mrs. P. E. Doncaster and child arrived from New Westminster yesterday morning to oin Mr. Doncaster who is in the Dominion public works office here.
