COLTS SCORED BIG VICTORY

Overwhelming Score of 27 to 2 Marked Second Game of Intermediate League Series.

The Junior Baseball League game between the Colts and the Beavers last night was a walk away for the former team by a score of 27 to 2. Indeed the runs came in so quickly that it taxed Miss Mills' abilities as a mathematician to keep tab on the score. In justice to the Beavers it must be said that they are a very much younger and lighter aggregation than their opponents and it says much for the pluck of the boys that they are ready to face such odds.

The batteries were Ralph Smith and George Hill for the Colts, and Aubrey Sweet and Elmer Smith for the Beavers. After being touched for four runs in the opening innings, Aubrey gave place to Johnnie Crossley, who, however, was unable to stop the opposition tally streak. Ralph Smith, backed up by good support, was able to keep the Beavers well in check.

Bright Spots.

Though beaten so heavily, the Beavers had a few bright spots in their play. Jack Berryman made a well judged one-handed catch in right field which made a finis to a long hit by George Hill. Harry Gawthorne and Frank Morrison made some similar admirable plays.

Everybody hit for the Colts, George Hill getting a three-sacker which easily might have been a homer. Their field work was excellent, special mention being due to "Hunky" Shaw for his work at left field, one of his stops being in big league class.

There were a large crowd of fans at the Acropolis to watch the game and their attendance was appreciated to the full by the boys.

The Teams.

Sid. Winsby was referee and Miss Mills was official scorer. The line-up was as follows:—Beavers—, Sweet p. 3b; William Lambie lf, M. Chenoski cf, Frank Morrison 1b, Harry Gawthorne ss., T. Halverson 2b, J. Crossley 3b-p., E. Smith c, H. Berryman cf, C. Hadlund, spare. Colts—George Hill c, Ralph Smith p, George Roberts 1b, Ed. Raby 2b, G. Mitchell ss., Len Sherman 3b, G. Shaw lf, H. Frizzell rf, E. Clapp cf.
