RECITAL GIVEN LAST EVENING

Delightful Musical Program Rendered by Ladies' Musical Club at Methodist Church.

One of the most enjoyable musical events of the season was the recital given last night in the Methodist Church by the Ladies' Musical Club. The attendance was not large but all those who were there voiced their appreciation and their pleasure at the quality of entertainment given. A voluntary collection was taken towards the funds of the nurses' home. The entire program went off without a hitch and Mrs. Williams, the conductor, is to be congratulated.

The first number was a piano duet, "Awakening of Spring," Bach, by Mrs. Williams and Miss Edmands. This was followed by a ladies' double quartette in "Indian Love Song" by Lieurance. The voices in the double quartette were: first sopranos, Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. Williams; second sopranos, Mrs. Blance and Mrs. Parkin; first contraltos, Mrs. Darton, Mrs. Ling; second contraltos, Mrs. Duncan and Miss King. Mrs. Roy Lipsett made her first appearance as a soloist before a Prince Rupert audience and made a very favorable impression. A duet on two pianos, "Fantasia," Morrison, was next rendered by Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Williams. Miss Lilian King was as ever pleasing with her violin and rendered Massenet's "Meditation" in excellent style. A recitation by Mr. Pudney and Sullivan's "Birds in the Night" by the double quartette concluded the first part of the program.

Second Part.

The second portion was opened by a piano duet "Galop," Edward Holt, rendered by Misses Edmands and Wakefield. This was followed by a vocal solo "Wanderer," Schubert, by Mrs. Jarvis McLeod. The eight-handed piano duet by Mrs. Williams, Miss Edmands, Miss Wakefield and Miss Willett was a pleasing number, a selection from Bizet's "Carmen" being rendered. J. C. Brady addressed the audience on the subject of music and the objects of the society. "Love's Old Sweet Song" was sweetly rendered by the double quartette and the last number was Grieg's "Morning Mood," a piano duet, by Mrs. Williams and Miss Edmands.

ANOTHER DROWNING IN SKEENA RIVER

Thomas Wesley, Old Essington Native, Loses Life When He Falls From Canoe.

The drowning occurred on Saturday at Salvus of Thomas Wesley, a Port Essington Indian, in the Skeena River. The deceased was fishing from a canoe with his grandson, Simon Pierce, when their net snagged, causing Wesley to lose his balance and be tipped from the canoe. The body was recovered by the grandson within 20 minutes but life was then extinct.

INTERMEDIATES BEAT SENIORS

Regular Team Let Boys in Easy and They Took Game by a 6-5 Score.

In the first game of the season played upon the home grounds the Prince Rupert team last night was defeated by the Intermediate All-Stars by a 6-5 score. Although they are in need of practice, the seniors did not extend themselves last night for if they had they should probably have shut the boys out. Harry Menzies, in the pitcher's box, sent easy ones over, which the boys were able to connect with, although they did not go very far.

Clementson and Anderson each made three sackers which were the record hits of the game. Sid Hardy made a very satisfactory referee. There was a good crowd in attendance and the collection went to the building fund.

The lineups were:

Prince Rupert—Donohue c., H. Menzies p., Vic Menzies 1b., Wallace Anderson 2b., Cummins ss., Farquahar 3b., Astoria lf., Clementson cf., Dye rf.

All-Stars—Matheison p., Belanger c., Roberts 1b., Raby 2b., Mitchell ss., Graham 3b., Shaw lf., Ratchford cf., and R. Smith rf.

The only Allotment of PRATT'S FLY CHASER
on the train

FLIES are dangerous. They carry contagion. They are a veritable plague to cows, and they eat up farmers' profits. Fly-pestered cows will not yield their normal milk they can't rest. They lose flesh and supply. They can't feed properly; health. It is humane and immensely profitable in every way to spray cows, calves and horses with Pratt's Fly Chaser, acknowledged to be the perfect product. It does not taint the milk—does not burn or blister the hide—does not take off or gum up the hair—but it certainly DOES chase away flies.

Pratt's is 'money-back' guaranteed
