W. Anderson, Charles Martin, William Nye and R. S. Sargent. Dr. Wrinch was chairman.

TINKERS WON CLOSE MATCH

Edged Chauffeurs out by 6-5 in Closely and Well Contested Baseball Game

The Chauffeurs made things interesting for the Tinkers in the baseball game last night althopgh they were defeated by a 6-5 score. The game ran along with everybody on their toes until the fifth inning, up till which period there was but one score for either side. The rest of the runs were scored after that time, the biggest hit being a three sacker by Astoria for the Tinkers in the eighth.

Last night's game was fully as interesting as any that have been played this season and it was a well played game too. The batteries, Haudenschild and Davidson for the Chauffeurs, and Ratchford and Crossley for the Tinkers, were playing great ball and the field support was all that could be desired. The game was fast and took an hour and a quarter only, the most of the batters going down one, two, three. Next Thursday the Tinkers and the Butchers will play off for the series honors. About $20 was collected last night, which will go towards the dressing room fund.

The line-up:

Tinkers—Ratchford, c., Crossley, p., Robinson, 1b., Louis Astoria, 2b., Sid Hardy, ss., Len Sherman, 3b., Billie Marr, lf., Elmer Smith, cf., and Bob McDonald, rf.

Chauffeurs—Haudenschild, c., Davidson, p., Bob Arthur, 1b., M. ss., Eddie Clapp, lf., Pullock, rf., Syrotuck, 2., Maxwell, 3b., Smith, and Will Martin, cf.

Harry Astoria was ball and strikes umpire and Bob Frizzell officiated around the base line.

PRODIGAL SPLENDOR

Gilded South American Gambling Palace Shown in "Moral Law."

Some of the most brilliant scenes in "The Moral Law," Galdys Brockwell's newest film, are laid in a reproduction of a famous South American gambling palace. It is generally conceded now that the glory, if it may be called such, of these gilded halls has passed from Monte Carlo to South American capitals. A picturesque scene of prodigal splendor is that of the faro and roulette establishment in this feature, at the Empress Theatre tonight.
