VANCOUVER MAN NEW

CHICAGO, June 10.—Fears are entertained here of a split in Republican convention at the very end of the proceedings. DO NOT FAVOR Root has framed a compromise basis for the acceptance of League of Nations, and has planted Senator Smoot, of Utah, the peacemaker between the two opposing factions. Both stand Smoot have spent a very busy night.

The condition of affairs at the present moment is summed a problem of arithmetic: "Add Lowden, Johnson, Butler and sule and subtract Wood. Then add Lowden, Butler and sule and subtract Johnson. After this subtract Lowden minus fer and you have the presidential nominee in Sproule."

CHICAGO, June 10,-Charles E. Hughes has come to be re- sent to the Minister of Customs ded in authoritative circles here to be the "dark horse" should at Ottawa by the local Board of split between the factions in the Republican convention over Trade yesterday: League of Nations plank become wider.

AN ANTI-DRY VICAR

A vigorous protest against prohibition was made by the Vicar of the Hamstead Garden subarb, in England, the Rev B. G Bouchier, who said:-"I want to offer on behalf of St Jude's and myself a most emphatic protest against the whole trend of thought that this Garden Suburb stands as a community which is out to enforce probibition upon the nation. If any resolution were passed we should forthwith hold a meeting to counter it." .

"It becomes us clergy ill." added Mr Bouchier. "to pour scorn ou the brewer, when we are indebted to him for so much support for our churches and charities. If I had my way I would have emblazoned on banners God save the King and the bee for the British people."

Grand Forks Police Officer Shot Dead

Provincial Constable George Stanfield Murdered in his own House; Crime Laid to Door of Bootleggers

GRAND FORKS, June 10 .- George Stanfield, local provincial olice constable, was murdered at 12:20 this morning by an unknown man believed to be a bootlegger who either hid in the onstable's house or followed him home. The wife, who was , n bed, heard the report and found her husband lying on the loor shot through the head.

Stanfield had been active in nabbing bootleggers crossing the boundary line near here and had several convictions to his credit. It was only recently that he arrested a band of eighteen men.

The blacksmith shop of William Lydicoat, police commissioner, was recently burned down and it is believed that this happening is closely connected with the Stanfield murder. Provincial and mounted police reinforcements have been called in.

The deceased was an army veteran and had seen service in India, Soudan and Africa. He was aged 41 and leaves besides his wife a daughter of eighteen years. He was stationed at Grand Forks five years and came from Phoenix.
