Cannery Business For this City.

Some of the cannery managers complain that Prince Rupert merchants want them to do business here, and then charge them much higher prices for the goods than has to be paid for the •same in Vancouver. This they claim is the only reason why they do business in Vancouver rather than here. They give specific instances of what they consider to be overcharges, say it is useless for the people here to complain at losing business if they gannot compete.

Just what ground there is for this charge, we are not in a position to say. The cannerymen purchase in large quantities and it is to be assumed from wholesale houses. They are on that account able to secure the very best rates. Whether Prince Rupert merchants, either wholesale or retail, are able to meet those rates and still make a profit on the goods, we do not know. It is quite possible that by meeting the cannery managers and discussing the matter of prices, the merchants might be able to secure business which at the present time is going away.

It is to be noted that already considerable supplies are purchased here, although only a fraction of the whole. Some local merchants, it is understood, have set out to secure some of the business. Others who sell only an article now and then, when the canneries run short, refuse to make any concessions to them and their prices seem high. The merchants say that it is only when the cannerymen have to buy from them that they come, so why should they secure more favorable prices than others.

The whole question seems to be one of getting together and using every possible effort to have any local handicaps removed. If the merchants meet the canners and talk over with them the question of supplies and prices, there is a likelihood that the business may be secured. If the steamer Otter is to come here for the Skeena run the handicap of transportation will be nemoved.

Being Represented

At Other Centres. Prince Rupert is being represented more than ever before at the various conventions and gatherings throughout the country and especially in this province. Delegates from here have been attending trade, political and fraternal gatherings of all kinds and the result is that the city is being advertised as never before. It is to be hoped that this will continue.

Great Interest Taken in Hospital.

Great interest is being taken in the work of the Prince Rupert General Hospital. The graduation exercises last night show that the people of the city are keenly interested in the institution, which, under Miss Atkinson, has been brought to a high degree of efficiency. In order to keep it modern and to pay the running expenses at the same time, there is a good deal of money needed.

Splendid work for the hospital is being done by the Ladies Auxiliary under Mrs. McClymont and the result is that better work is being done and greater interest taken in properly caring for the sick or injured.

JUNGLE STORY AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

All that stands between Robert Morgan and happiness is money. For Mary Lamar is Robert's definition of happiness, and Mary is gich. So is Philip Garson, which fact makes him favored of Mary's mother, but not of Mary. Garson knows his unpopularity and resorts to scheming. He concocts a story about a tiger for which a museum offers a big reward. Reward to Robert means moneyand Mary.
