POSTMASTER LOSES BROTHER IN TORONTO

W. D. McIntosh, Jr., was a Merchant in the Ontario Capital.

W. D. McIntosh, Jr., a Toronto merchant, died on Thursday after a serious operation at the Mayo Bros. Hospital in Rochester, Minn., says the Toronto Globe.

The late Mr. McIntosh started business here in 1883 as representative for Toronto and the west of David Morris & Sons, selling agents of the Penman Company, a position which he had continued to hold since the business was taken over about fifteen years ago by John Gordon & Son.

Mr. McIntosh was the eldest son of W. D. McIntosh, formerly a grain merchant in this city, who survives him at 84 years of age.
He is also survived by his mother, a brother, who is postmaster at Prince Rupert, B.C., and one sister, Mrs. Mercer Adams, of Toronto.

He was a member of the Ontario Jockey Club, Albany Club, Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Board of Trade and Empire Club.

The pall-bearers at the funeral were: Mr. R. B. Morrice and Mr.
H. Rowland of Montreal, Mr. J.
Penman, J. Bonner, C. M. Haddie and C. B. Robinson of Paris, and Mr. F. Mallison and A. F. B. Sow-don of Toronto.

AWAY WITH BALL GAME

Beat Drydocks Last Night by the Score of 12 to 5.

In a baseball match last night between the Junior Giants and the Drydocks the Giants were the winners by a score of 12 to 5. The victors have been playing a steady game all season as they have not lost one game so far in the league.
Both teams did some very good hitting last night but the Giants proved too steady for their opponents.

For the winners the heavy hitters were A. Mitchell, Gordon Johnson and H. Cox, whilst the sluggers for the Drydocks were T. Fraser, B. Lundquist and W.
Crossley. The battery for the Junior Giants was Reuben Scherk and Gordon Johnson, whilst Willie Crossley held the mound for the Drydocks with Barney Lundquist behind the bat. George Will acted as umpire. The players were:
Giants—Scherk, Johnson, Mitchell, McNicholl, Johnson, Coxey, Palmer, Mortimer and Shockley.
Drydocks—Lundquist, Crossley, Fraser, McKinnon, Force, Blythe, Phillipson, Hill and Tattersall.

HEARD BULLET AS IT WHISTLED PAST

Boy at Comox Almost Victim of Fool Hunter.

COMOX, June 16.—Whilst looking for cows on the farm of Dr.
Beadnell on the Little River Road, Comox, a boy, the nephew of Mr.
Horace Smith, heard a bullet whistle past his ear. Immediately after there burst into the clearing where he was a man with a gun who stood agast for a few moments and then said, "Good God, I thought you were a deer!" then realizing that his act had put him outside the law he made off as fast as he could.

The matter has been reported to the police.

SHOWS ACCIDENTAL
HONEYMOON TONIGHT

Unusual interest will be taken in the showing of "The Accidental Honeymoon" at the Westholme Theatre tonight, for it is the last picture in which Captain Robert Warwick appeared before he heard the call of the flag and went to the fighting front in France to serve in the interest of Uncle Sam.

Young romance is the dominating influence of the story.
There is much bright comedy, some unique and amusing situations and a steady flow of interesting incidents leading up to a fixed purpose.

Captain Warwick enacts the role of a young artist who is despondent and tired of life until a certain girl draws on his vision.
The young artist sets out to win the girl for his wife, but he has so much trouble in winning her that it often seems as though his efforts were destined to fail.

A Tremendous CLEARING SALE

of MEN'S CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS

Starting
Thursday Morning
JUNE 17

For the last four years, there has been a steady advance in the price of all lines of Men's Clothing and Furnishings.

Manufacturers and jobbers still claim that for Spring delivery
