It Represents Our Store

Of course you know that our Catalogue comes to you representing ourselves, but you may not know that it offers you absolutely the best of each particular line we have in stock. For instance, each year the lines which have not been so favored as others are culled from its pages. It continually undergoes a refining process, so that you can rely upon everything shown as being up to date and in popular fancy.

PYTHIAN SISTERS' SOCIAL EVENING

Dancing and Cards Enjoyed by Members of the Order and Friends.

Last night in the K. of P. hall the Pythian Sisters spent a very pleasant social evening at cards and dancing. A number of the Knights and friends attended, in all about fifty couples. Mr. Jackson took charge of the cards and kept the tables moving in easy style. The winners were Mrs. Director for the ladies and J. H. Gibson for the men. The consolation prizes went to Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Hart.

Following a few hands of cards, dancing commenced with Mr. Westaway officiating as master of ceremonies. Refreshments were served during the course of the evening and everyone enjoyed the event. The success of the affair was due in most part to the services of Mrs. Harvey, who had charge of all arrangements.

NEW AUCTIONEER IS HOLDING FIRST SALE

C. V. Evitt to Offer Effects of E. P. Gingras on Saturday.

C. V. Evitt, commissioner of the Board of Trade, is commencing business here as an auctioneer and will hold his first sale on Saturday afternoon, when the effects of the late E. P. Gingras will be sold.

Mr. Evitt is well known here, where he has resided since the town was started and he is well qualified for the new line of business on which he has entered. He will continue to act as commissioner for the Board of Trade and will have his offices at the Board of Trade rooms.

Two-color window cards take the eye quickly. See them at the News Job Department.

GIRL GUIDES ORGANIZATION

Valuable Training Through the Work Carried on Under Guidance.

There is in the city a corps of girl guides, but few people realize what they are and what they stand for. The movement was started some seven or eight years ago and is not in any way connected with any other organization. It was inaugurated for the purpose of ensuring a good environment and the interest of wholesome activity outside the school during the hours when the girls are free from duties.

The guides are formed into companies of about thirty each and each company is subdivided into patrols of six or eight each under its own leader. Each member is expected to do her bit and they usually do it. They wear a simple uniform, serviceable but without frills. They wear badges when they have earned them, there being something like thirty badges of proficiency for work in handicrafts or sports and home craft.

The girl joining promises to honor God and the King, to obey the Guide law and to do good turns to other people. Health is taught as all important and ignorance as one of the chief causes of its lack. A girl is expected to keep herself clean, wholesome and well.

The local corps is in charge of Mrs. H. L. Roberson, who is acting chief guide.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR POPULAR TEACHER

Miss Nyman is the Recipient of Many Beautiful and Useful Gifts Last Evening.

In anticipation of the forthcoming wedding of Miss Nyman of the Borden Street school to Dr. Percy S. Tennant of Vernon, B.C., a miscellaneous shower was given last evening by Mrs. W. T. Kergin and Miss Gillingham at the home of the former, Second Avenue. About thirty of the friends of the bride to be were present, bringing many beautiful and useful presents. They were presented by little Edith Kergin and Bobbie Parker who were cutely dressed as a bride and bridegroom and caused much merriment by the way in which they carried out their duties.

It is understood that the wedding will take place during the summer and that Montreal will be the future home of the lady who has during her sojourn in Prince Rupert made many friends and whose going away will be regretted.

GAMBLE OF SOULS AT THE WESTHOLME

"The Gamble of Souls," featuring a new star, Madeline Travers, will be seen tonight at the Westholme Theatre. The story deals with the stock market and the Dominion oil fields. The heroine's husband invests everything he has in worthless stock and loses his home. The wife swears vengeance on the broker who ruined their home, but curiously the daughter falls in love with the broker's son.

The luring of the man into a gambling house where he is ruined by the mother of his bride and the outcome are the thrilling features of the play.

BAPTIST TEA

Large Number Attend Event at Home of Mrs. Wright Yesterday.

A tea and sale of home-cooking was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. L. P. Wright, Cotton St., which was largely attended and at which the handsome sum of $26.65 was realized for the funds of the Ladies Aid of the Baptist Church, under whose auspices the event took place. Mrs. S. Dawson president of the society, helped Mrs. Wright receive and tea was poured by Miss Fuller. The affair was most enjoyable.

Mr. Coyney has been appointed agent for the sale of stock in the McLennan Silver Mines, whose property surrounds the Dolly Varden group and has the rich mineral vein of that famous mine.

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses — is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from ills, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.
