

It Represents Our Store

Of course you know that our catalogue comes to you representing ourselves, but you may not know that it offers you absolutely the best of each particular line we have in stock. For instance, each year the lines which have not been so popular as others are culled from the pages. It continually undergoes a refining process, so that you can rely upon everything shown as being up to date and in popular fancy.

WILL ERECT A MEMORIAL

Tablet Being Prepared for King Edward School in Memory of the Boys Who Served Overseas.

When the first Victory Loan was subscribed the pupils of the King Edward school bought a bond on the understanding that it was to be used eventually toward a memorial tablet for the boys of the school who joined the overseas forces. Now the fifty dollars is being utilized. The high school literary society and the high school athletic association have each donated ten dollars toward the fund and the remainder is being made up by the pupils at King Edward. With it a brass tablet is being purchased and it will be erected at the school.

It had been planned to have the unveiling take place this coming Friday, but the tablet is not ready, so it will be unveiled later. Henry Birks of Vancouver is preparing the tablet which will be mounted on oak with an oak frame.

Of the boys from the King Edward School, three lost their lives and seventeen in all went overseas. The following names will be on the tablet:—

Jack Dowling, killed.
Frank Holland, killed.
Walter Smith, killed.
Fred Ives.
Noel Peters.
C. R. Murray.
Harry Lloyd Johnston.
Frank Dowling.
George Ambrose.
Robert Ritchie.
Fritz Skjellum.
Wallace Anderson.
Arthur Manson.
Will Stephen.
Norris Pringle.
John Currie.
Arnold B. Dunn.

PENSIONS COMMITTEE IS NEARLY READY TO MAKE THEIR REPORT

OTTAWA, June 19.—The special committee on pensions and other features of soldiers' re-establishment will present its report in a few days.

The report will be an extensive one and its main features will be as follows:

First—There will be no further bonuses or gratuities.
Second—There will be an increase described as substantial in pensions based on conditions of health and disabilities.
Third—Increased pay to dependents of disabled soldiers.
Fourth—Pensions to both parents of fallen soldiers instead of to one only.
Fifth—Increased consideration to tubercular veterans.
Sixth—A change in the regulations whereby a woman's pension will not be diminished by reason of her earnings from other sources.
Seventh—Increase in the salaries of the pension commissioners from $5,000 to $6,000 a year.

PRINCESS EARNS HER DAILY BREAD

LONDON, June 19.—Another daughter of Russian royalty has been forced by poverty to earn her daily bread. She is Princess Obolensky Yoursevesky, a daughter of Alexander Second, aunt of the late murdered czar. She is attempting to earn her living as an opera singer and has arranged her first public appearance at Queen's Hall for June 25. The princess has a rich mezzo voice. She is a rather tall brunette and wears her hair braided across her forehead and has unmistakably Romanoff features.

"I lost everything in the revolution but life itself," she declared here today. "I first escaped when our gardener gave me his wife's passport papers and left in disguise, being forced to act as a serving maid to escape detection. I waited on the Bolsheviks and heard from them the report that my husband had been killed."

"Dressed as a Sister of Mercy I finally reached Moscow and found my husband alive hidden by friends."

GREAT BALL ON SATURDAY

Double Header Goes One Each to Stewart and Prince Rupert.

Honors broke even in Saturday's baseball series between Stewart and Prince Rupert. In the afternoon the visitors suffered defeat at the hands of the home nine by the score of 7 to 1, but in the evening the reverse occurred with a score of 6 to 1. The battery for the northern boys was Daly and Buchanan in both games, whilst in the afternoon Brown and Brown acted for Rupert and in the evening the match started with McGregor in the box and Brown receiving. In the sixth Brown replaced McGregor. Hearn was judge of balls and strikes at both engagements and Fred Henning acted as base umpire.

In the afternoon match the visitors were at a disadvantage as they were short McKnight, the 3rd baseman. George Mitchell, the Colts' short stop, was substituted. On an over-throw he let the first man in but got a fine put out from third a few minutes later. The game was well played throughout and the spirit of the Stewart boys continued until the end, even though there were so many runs against them in the first innings. The star plays of the afternoon were when Cummings knocked a home run over the rock pile and Clem's right hand spear in centre field when the Stewart catcher's long fly had backed him up almost to the face of the cliff. Before such a display of high-class baseball all the fans rose to their feet and shouted with one accord. The one score made by Stewart came in the third by Milloy. The bases were full at the end of the same inning but Mitchell got hit when he struck at the ball and was put out. The final record was 7 to 1 in favor of the home team.

In the evening Stewart was plainly out to win and Tiny Daly pitched good ball all the time. They started the tally with three runs in the first inning while Rupert didn't score until the 4th on Clem's home-run. This made the second $10.00 to be paid out by Mr. Jayne during the day. McGregor was pitching for Rupert up to the seventh but they were finding him rather easily. Too late was Brownie substituted to save the day, however he saved a larger score as only one hit was credited to the winners following his entrance to the box. The Stewart boys were playing good ball and the home team seemed to be unable to get away with the same stride that they had shown in the afternoon.

The lineup was as follows:
Stewart—Buchanan, Priest, McKnight, Daly, M. Roman, Kellerman, V. Roman, Benson and Milloy.
Menzie was substituted for Kellerman in the evening.
Prince Rupert—Cummings, Anderson, Brown, Clementson, McGregor, Hardy, Farquhar and Brown.
