

THE DAILY NEWS

PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA
Published Every Afternoon, except Sunday, by The News
Printing and Publishing Co., Third Avenue.

H. F. PULLEN, MANAGING EDITOR.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

City Delivery, by carrier or mail, per month	75c.
By mail to all parts of the British Empire and the United States, in advance, per year	86.00
To all other countries, in advance, per year	87.50

TELEPHONE 98.

Transient Display Advertising $1.25 per inch each insertion.
Transient advertising on front page $2.00 per inch.
Local Readers, per insertion, 25c. per line.
Classified advertising, per insertion, 2c. per word.
Legal Notices, each insertion, 55c. per agate line.
Contract Rates on Application.

All advertising should be in the Daily News Office on day preceding publication. All advertising received subject to approval.

DAILY EDITION.

Saturday, June 26, 1926.

Not in Sympathy With Price Control.

A dispatch received yesterday from Ottawa telling of the resignation of the last surviving member of the Board of Commerce, the price control body of the Dominion of Canada, is enlightening. Everyone thought that the activities of the Board were simply a sham. Now they know it. A member of the Board tells us that the cabinet was never in sympathy with the operation of the Commodity and Fair Prices Act. Anyone else would have said the same thing, but it might not have had as much weight as coming from the labor member of the commission.

One instance of the futility of the activities of the Board was seen when the paper mills refused to supply the newspapers of Canada with paper and insisted on sending the product out of the country. The Board of Commerce issued orders which were completely ignored by the paper mills and the mills eventually won out because the Government refused to back up its own officials in carrying out their duties. The incident was a farce.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war. Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

DENTISTRY

of the Highest Grade and Lowest Cost

EXTRACTION OF TEETH
in a scientific manner
Lady Assistant.

Crown, Bridge
AND Platework
Get My Prices
and Compare Them.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Lately Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMÉDÉE GARNEAU

21 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a sufferer from the terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1923, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knee, hip and shoulder and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take "Fruit-a-tives" and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was well again, and in six weeks I was well again. Now they know it. A member of the Board tells us that the cabinet was never in sympathy with the operation of the Commodity and Fair Prices Act. Anyone else would have said the same thing, but it might not have had as much weight as coming from the labor member of the commission.

One instance of the futility of the activities of the Board was seen when the paper mills refused to supply the newspapers of Canada with paper and insisted on sending the product out of the country. The Board of Commerce issued orders which were completely ignored by the paper mills and the mills eventually won out because the Government refused to back up its own officials in carrying out their duties. The incident was a farce.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.

Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.

Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.

Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.

Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.

Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.

Yet in order to publish these journals it is necessary for Hearst to secure Canadian pulp and paper. Canadian publications were unable to secure paper to keep their presses running, and all the time the paper was being sent to the United States to enable Hearst to continue his campaign of slander against us. The Government in this case was impotent. Why? Because shares in the company were held by the controllers of the Government.

Unionists May Change Name.

It is reported that the Unionists may change their name before the next general election. There is no objection to that, but we would like to suggest that it would be much better for the Unionists to change their policy and their leaders. There might then be a possibility of their returning to power. The people will not likely allow themselves to be camouflaged by a change of name.

There are some good men in the Unionist cabinet. There are many good men supporting the Government, but the people as a whole are undoubtedly tired of the spineless policy shown by the administration and if an election were held today there would be a complete change in the personnel of the Dominion Parliament. Possibly the Government may yet retrieve itself. There is, however, no sign of any such change taking place.

It must be admitted that these are trying days for governments. There is opposition to almost everything. There is one thing that the country seldom forgives, however, and that is vacillation and weakness. A strong leader can carry a party, even in the wrong direction. He can put over a pernicious policy. He can make people believe in him, even when he is far from the path of rectitude. A weak leader gets nowhere.

Board was Cabinet's Own Child.

It is possible that the appointment of a Board of Commerce was not the best method of controlling prices and supply. It must be remembered, however, that the Board was the Government's own child. It was appointed under its own legislation and certainly under those circumstances should have been supported. Apparently what the Government wanted of members of the Board was that they should try to make a showing to the country and at the same time see that nobody connected with the administration was injured.

Another Curious Case in Point.

The Dominion Government has on more than one occasion banned from circulation in this province some of the publications of W. R. Hearst because of their strong anti-British and pro-German sentiment. These journals openly derided everything British and sympathized strongly with the enemy during the war.