Frequent Cases Indicate Lower Moral Standard

Last Sunday morning Dr. H. R. rant made a particularly strong attack in his sermon against the public attitude today in regard to divorce. About twenty or thirty years ago he maintained that a co-respondent in a divorce case would practically have been ostracised. Naturally there were very few occurrences when civil faction became necessary; but nowadays at almost every sitting of the Assizes there are three or our cases before the judge. This ie felt denoted a depreciated public opinion in regard to the moral standard, apart from any Christian point of view.

Again too the minister attack-1 ed the modern political views and cited as an instance the recent Convention held in the United should represent the Republican party for the presidency. He said the people had gone wild in stuated on Shannon Bay, Massett their enthusiasm for Hoover, but Queen Charlotte Islands District. the higher party interests decided upon another, a dark horse. ntil actions such as these, which victoria, B. C., or District Forester, Prince might be duplicated in Canadian politics, are stopped, there, will be no healthy moral welfare for the Dominion and the world as
