PASSENGER TRAIN FALLS THROUGH TRESTLE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Tacoma, July 3.—A Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul passenger train fell through a trestle near Rainier at 8:30 this morning, on top of a freight train. Many were killed and injured.

DRAMA AND COMEDY AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic Theatre presents a powerful two-reel drama entitled "His Nemesis," tonight and Monday. This is followed by a laughter-provoking comedy "At The Mask Ball." "The Heart of Jim Bruce" is a drama of great human interest, while "The Pollywogs Picnic" is a screaming comedy.

No matter how warm the weather is, the Majestic is always delightfully cool and airy, thanks to the new system of ventilation.

What does it mean? 1910-1915.

VANCOUVER RATEPAYERS AND GOVERNMENT LOAN

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, July 3.—The Central Ratepayers Association passed a resolution urging the city not to accept a loan from the government for relief work. The association claims that the government should look after the men who are out of work.

FOOTBALL

In a league game at Recreation Park last night, the Merchants football team defeated the Dry-docks by 3 goals to 2. It was hard luck on the ironworkers that they had to face a stiff league game so soon after a strenuous cup final, as several of their players were obviously suffering from the effects of Thursday's encounter. The play was never of a very high order, many chances being missed by both sides. Mr. Eardley, who refereed, had the game well in hand from the start, and did not tolerate any rough work.

AUSTRIANS SUFFER TERRIFIC LOSSES AT HANDS OF ITALIANS

FRONT OF AUSTRIAN COLUMN IS SWEEP AWAY BY ARTIL-LERY FIRE--ENEMY RETIRES IN CONFUSION--THE AUSTRIAN OFFENSIVE BROKEN DOWN-- AMMUNITION BLOWN UP

(Special to The Daily News.)

Rome, July 3.—The Italian forces have inflicted terrific losses on the Austrians at Carnic, in the Alps northwest of Malborghetto, when their efforts to relieve a fortress were repulsed.

The whole front of the enemy's column was swept away by deadly artillery fire, and they retired in confusion.

Austrian Offensive Broken.

The Austrian offensive on the Piave-Cradisca front has completely broken down. At Udine, Austrian ammunition convoys were blown up by Italian aviators.

What does it mean? 1910-1915.

GERMAN AMERICAN FANATIC ATTEMPTS TO KILL J. P. MORGAN

ASSAILANT HAD MADE ELABORATE PLANS FOR ESCAPE BUT IS FELLE BY BUTLER--MR. MORGAN'S WOUNDS
NOT SERIOUS--A BOMB OUTRAGE AT WASHINGTON

(Special to The Daily News.)

New York, July 3.—J. P. Morgan, who is chief purchasing agent for the British government in the United States, was attacked and shot twice at his country home at Glen Cove, L. I., last night by a fanatic who claims to be F. Holt, an instructor in German at Cornell University. The assailant said he felt that it was his duty as a christian gentleman to kill Morgan if he could not induce him to end the war.

The wounds are, fortunately, not serious. The assailant is injured, having been felled by a coal box thrown by the butler. A satchel was found at the door, filled with dynamite. The assailant is of German descent. He had numerous railway tickets which he had purchased in order to effect his escape by any road, and had a fast auto waiting. His hand bag bears the name of Schwartzheimer, but his real name is said to be Marcoe.

Bomb Outrage.

Washington, July 3.—The public reception room at the capitol was wrecked by a bomb at midnight. A letter to the Times, posted early in the evening, said that the writer, R. Pearce, would do the deed as the crowning act of his career.

MAJESTIC STOCK CO. AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Majestic Stock Company will present the great racehorse comedy drama "Wildfire" at the Westholme on Monday.

In "Wildfire," the greatest racehorse comedy drama of the age, made famous by Lillian Russell, the owner of a string of horses, the John Duffy stables, dies, leaving his widow, Mrs. Henrietta Barrington, with his horses but without money.

Her only chance to get money which she needs, is to enter "Wildfire," one of the horses, in the Ocean stakes. She is compelled to do this secretly, because her sister is engaged to the minister, who is opposed to horse racing.

It is a fine and interesting theme, as presented by the Majestic company, and in the end John Garrison, played by Fred Cantway, wins the hand of Mrs. Barrington; "Wildfire," of course, wins the race and money and everything finishes in a way that makes glad the hearts of the spectators.

In addition to the fine parts played by the leading lady, Miss Vane Calvert, and Mr. Cantway, special attention may be bestowed upon W. W. Craig, as the trainer of "Wildfire," who thwarts the efforts of the alleged John Duffy to fix the race, and of Charles E. Ellis, as Bud the stable boy. The show will commence at 8:30.

A party of Alberta school teachers came in on the train last night and left for the south on the Rupert.

R. F. Green, member for Kootenay in the House of Commons, and George H. Hubbard, representing Victoria in the house, came in on the train last night and went south this morning.

G. L. Clayton's cold storage proposition was brought before the Board of Trade last night, and referred to the fisheries committee for report.

ARTHUR NOBLE EXPECTS TO BE INVALIDED HOME

The following letter from Arthur Noble to his father is taken from a recent issue of the Peterboro Examiner:

Lincoln, England, June 2nd. "You will note by this that I have left France and am now in England. I had the misfortune to be slightly wounded on the 22nd of May at a place called Fismard in France. However, I am practically better now, although I am still in hospital. I will in all probability be discharged soon and sent to a convalescent home for some time, and then sent home. I expect to be home in about three months."

At the Board of Trade meeting last night, the secretary was instructed to write to Col. Theodore Roosevelt, inviting him to visit Prince Rupert at an early date.

Mrs. F. McB. Young and Miss Young returned from a visit south, on the Prince Rupert.
