GERMAN SUPER-SUBMARINE SUNK BY RUSSIAN WARSHIPS

SUBMARINE WHICH DID DAMAGE IN THE DARDANELLES IS SENT UNDER IN THE BLACK SEA—WELSH MINERS STILL IDLE—LLOYD GEORGE TO VISIT SOUTH WALES

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, July 16.—The German super-submarine U-54, which is credited with sinking several of the allied ships in the Dardanelles including the battleship Majestic, has been sunk in the Black Sea by Russian warships.

The vessel eluded the cordon at Gibraltar and, after passing through the Dardanelles, entered the Sea of Marmora to attack the Russian Black Sea fleet.

Miners Still Idle.
In spite of a recommendation made by the miners executive, the South Wales miners refused to return to work today. D. Lloyd George is to visit the district. Mr. Lloyd George has admittedly great influence in the district, and it is expected that the men will return to work on Monday. Meantime the government has established a munitions board over all South Wales.

U. S. BATTLESHIPS PASS THROUGH PANAMA CANAL

(Special to The Daily News.)
Panama, July 16.—The canal was used today for the first time for battleships. The first-class battleships Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin passed through from the Atlantic to the Pacific in eight hours.

CANADIAN EYE WITNESS MENTIONS MAJOR PECK

Sir Max Aitken, the Canadian Record officer serving with the army in France, in a detailed report upon the fighting of the Canadians from May 17 to 20, makes mention of Major Peck of this city, who commanded one of the companies that was assigned hazardous work. The morning of the 20th orders were issued for an attack on the orchard that night. A reconnaissance of the position was made by Major Leckie, brother of Lieut.-Col. Leckie, when patrols were sent out, one of which very neatly managed to escape being cut off by the enemy, and another suffered a few casualties. This showed that the Germans were in force, and that an attack on the orchard would be no light work. That night the Canadian Scottish occupied a deserted house close to the German lines and succeeded in establishing there two machine guns and a garrison of thirty men. The enemy were evidently not aware that we were in possession of this house, for although they bombarded all the British trenches with great severity throughout the whole of the next day, this garrison was left untouched. The attacking detachment under Major Rea consisted of two companies of the Canadian Scottish, one commanded by Captain Morrison, the other by Major Peck."

FATAL EXPLOSION IN KENTUCKY POWDER MILL

(Special to The Daily News.)
Louisville, Ky., July 16.—A rigid investigation which has been made into an explosion which occurred at a factory of the United Safety Powder Company, resulting in the loss of four lives, shows that the explosion was caused by outside agencies.

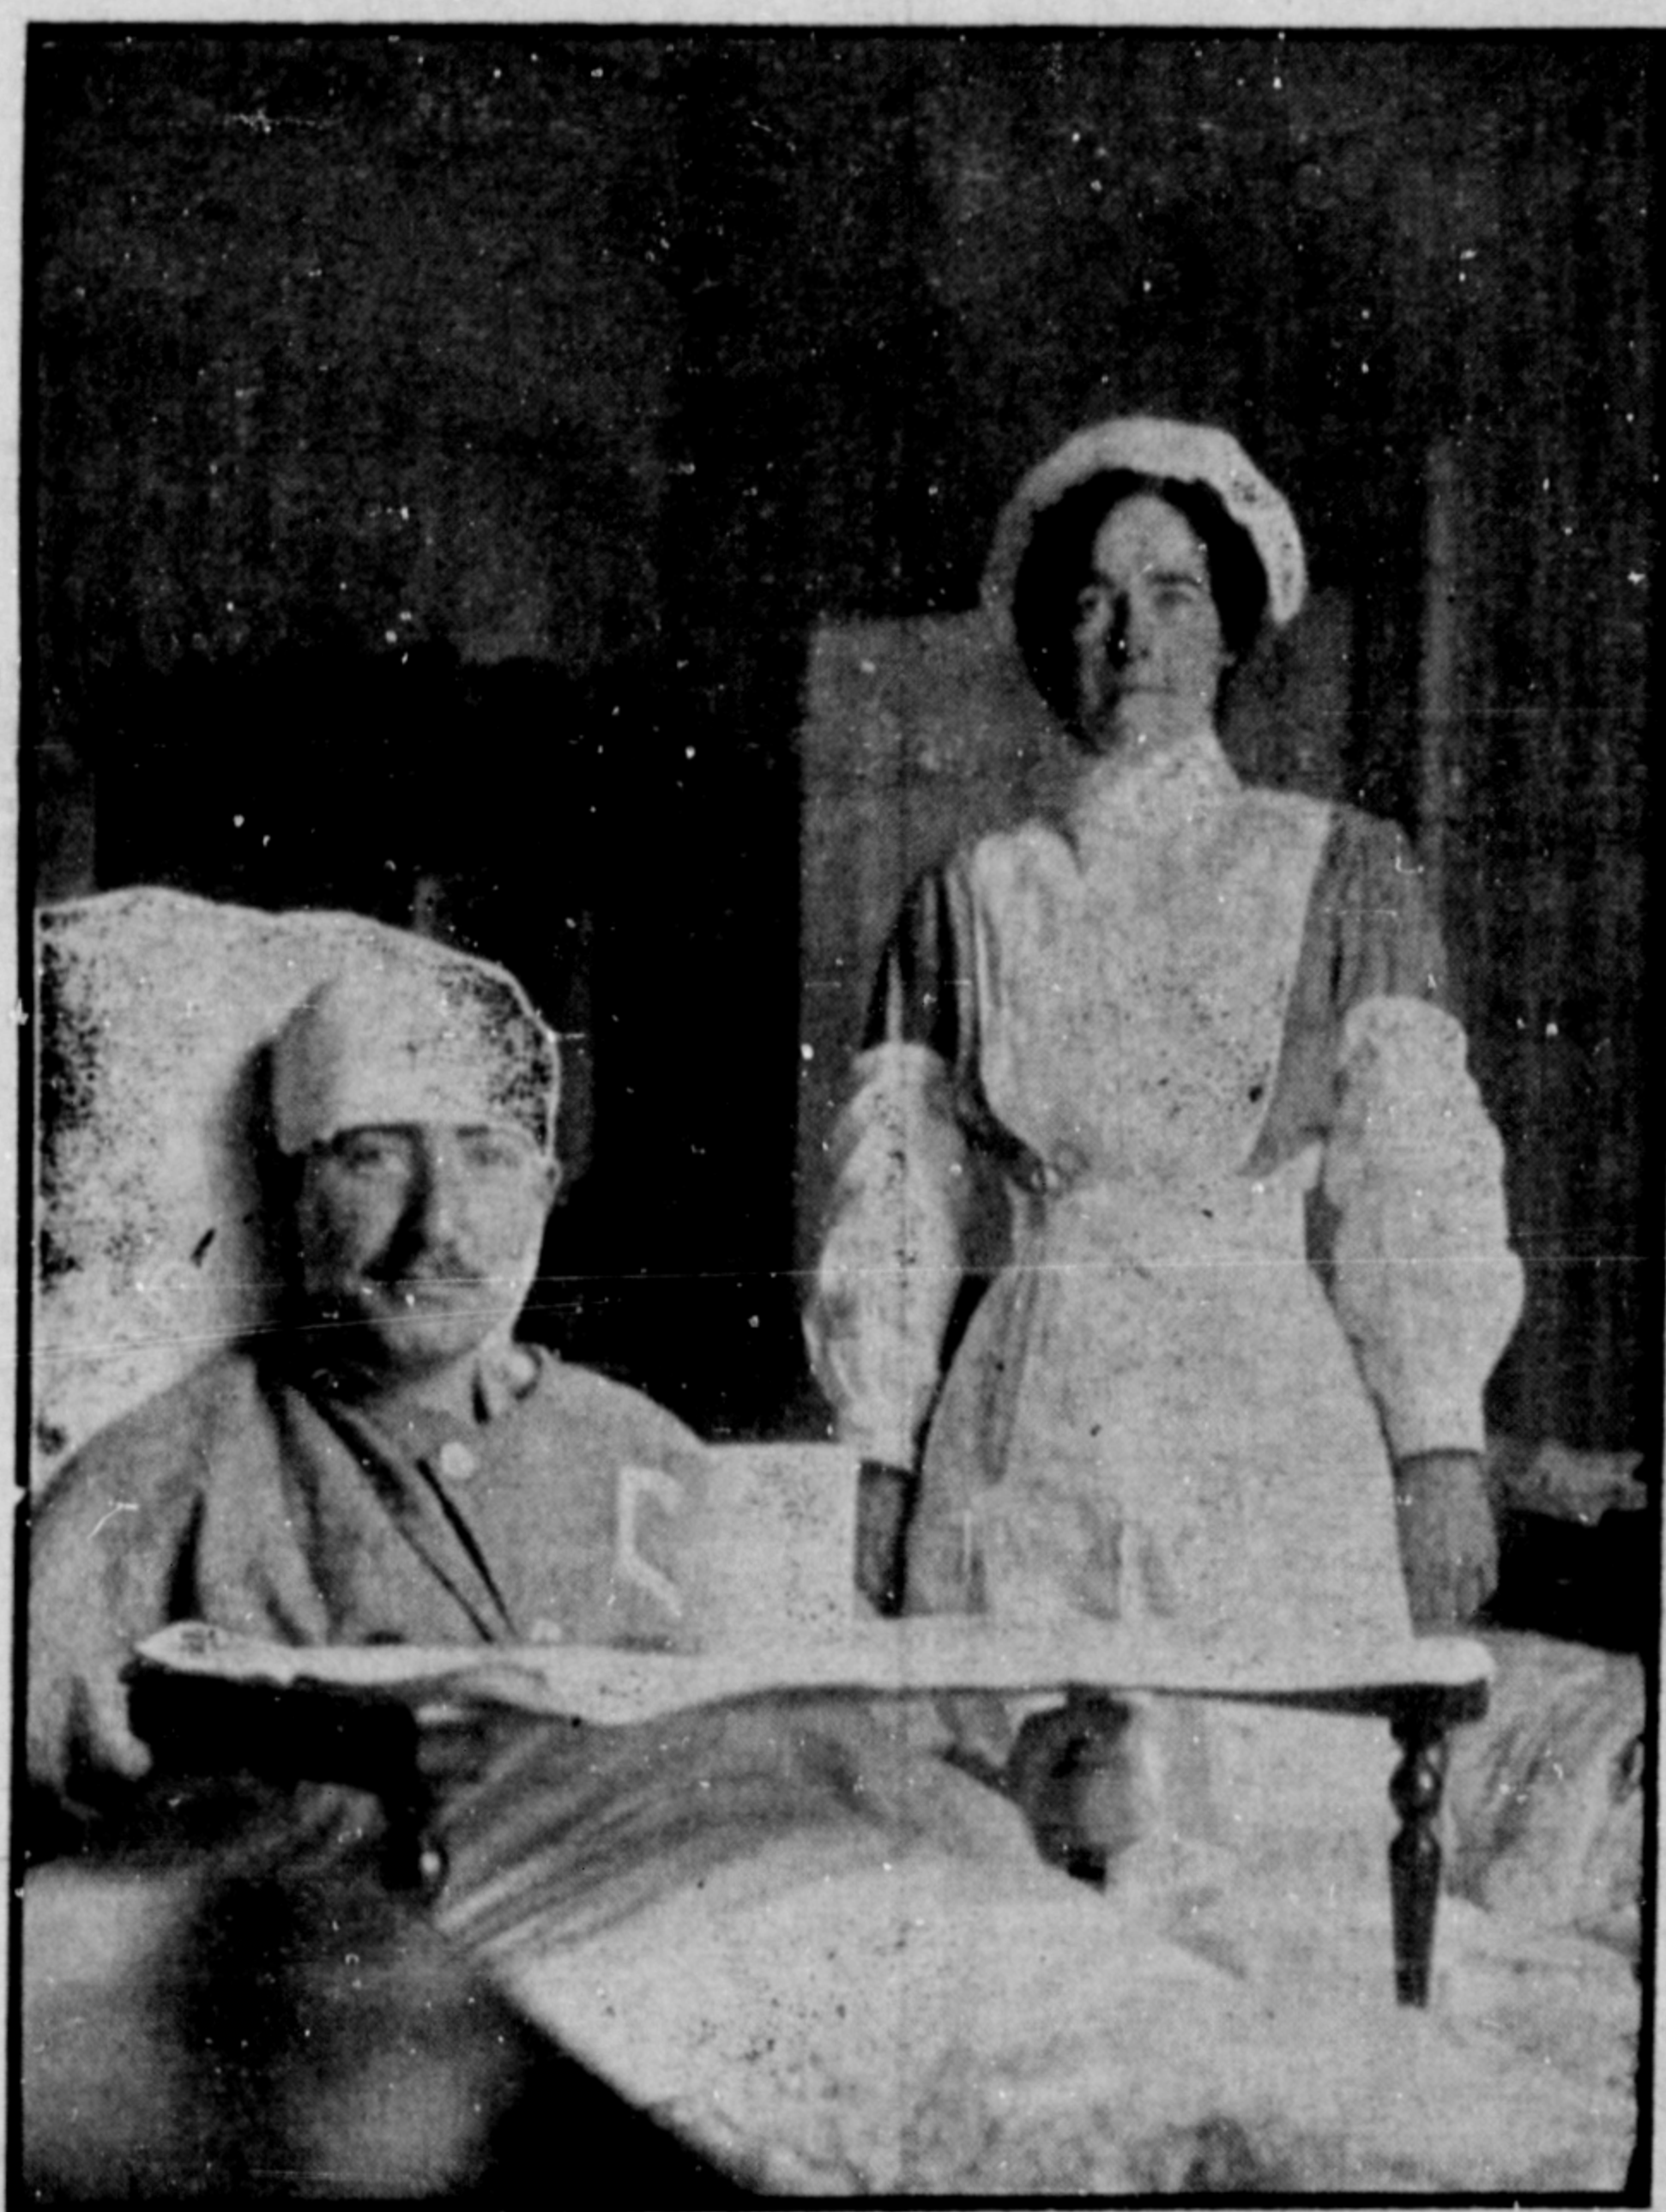

Since the war began the factory has been under lease to a Canadian company, until a month ago.

ENQUIRY FROM LONDON REGARDING FISH TRADE

The Board of Trade Information Bureau has received an inquiry regarding Prince Rupert's fish trade from McDonald, Seales & Co., of London, England.

This company is a large importer of frozen salmon, etc., and desires to get in touch with the Prince Rupert exporters. F. S. Wright, the Information Bureau commissioner, has furnished them with full particulars, including a list of Prince Rupert's fishing concerns.

Fred. B. Darley Who Was Reported Killed Last April

Above is a photograph of F. B. Darley, of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Prince Rupert, taken in Carisbrooke Nursing Home, Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England.

Mr. Darley, who was reported killed last April, has been in the hospital for eight weeks, suffering from a badly fractured skull, resulting from his head getting in the way of a shrapnel shell. His recovery is looked upon as approaching the miraculous. Fred expects to be removed to his home in Ireland shortly, and hopes to be able to return to Canada in the summer of next year.

EXHIBITION NOTE

The Indian Department at Ottawa has notified the secretary of the Agricultural Association that it will contribute $200 cash to the fund which provides prizes for the Indian competitors in basket work, etc., at the Exhibition. The prize fund for Indian work now amounts to the respectable total of $950.

FALSE ALARM

A fire alarm was turned in from near Lynch's store at 11:45 last night. The brigade was quickly on the spot, but not a sign of fire could be found.

FRENCH SUCCESSES IN HEAVY FIGHTING IN ARGONNE REGION

HILL IN ARGONNE FOREST RECAPTURED—HEAVY FIGHTING CONTINUES—GERMAN OFFENSIVE REPULSED AT VERDUN—RENEWED FIGHTING ON NIEMAN FRONT

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, July 16.—Hill 825, in the forest of Argonne, which was stormed by the Germans early this week, has been recaptured by the French. Heavy fighting in the Argonne continues.

A German effort to break through the French line of attack on the fortress at Verdun was repulsed with heavy loss.

Fighting Resumed.

London, July 16.—There has been a renewal of fighting on the Nieman front in the Russian provinces of Coutland and Kovno, following the arrival of German reinforcements. The Russians are offering a stubborn resistance. The general fighting on the Russian front shows little change. The Austrians have been driven across the Dneister with heavy losses.

THAW DECLARED SANE BY JUDGE HENDRICKS

(Special to The Daily News.)
New York, July 16.—Judge Hendrick upholds the jury's verdict in the Thaw case, and finds that Harry Thaw is sane. The judge now orders Thaw's release on a $50,000 bond.

MIXED BALL GAMES AT RECREATION PARK

Teams representing the Colts and the Sons of England played a mixture of baseball and football at Recreation Park last night in five innings of baseball the Colts defeated the Sons of England by 9 runs to 2, and in thirty minutes of football, the Sons were victors by 3 goals to 2.

The Colts played an unorthodox but very effective brand of football, and several of them, with a little practice, would be star performers. Neither game was taken very seriously, and the spectators were treated to some highly amusing stunts.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Cameo Kirby," a Paramount Lasky five-reel production is the big attraction at the Majestic tonight. The story, by Booth Tarkington, is a delightfully romantic drama of the southern states in the fifties. Dustin Farnum, as a penniless young planter who turns professional gambler, is splendid. There is not a dull moment in the five reels, while the setting of the piece is wonderfully realistic. "The Honor of the Camp" is a western drama, concluding a program well worth seeing.

DAVID A. THOMAS WILL VISIT OTTAWA THIS WEEK

Ottawa, July 15.—The British government's new purchasing agent in Canada and the United States, David A. Thomas, is expected to be in Ottawa this week, and one of his first tasks will be to take up with the militia department's shell committee and with Canadian manufacturers the question of placing further orders in Canada for shells and fixed ammunition. A number of iron and steel manufacturers have been in conference with the shell committee during the past few days with a view to finding out Canada's capacity for shell and ammunition making. They are willing to enlarge the present equipment and output considerably if there is a reasonable assurance given that the orders will be forthcoming in sufficient volume to warrant the outlay for new machinery.
