

HER DREAMS CAME TRUE

Life Unbearable from Indigestion
Health Restored by "Fruit-a-tives"

MELIE C. GAUDREAU

Rochon P.Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.
"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I became thin and miserable. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again.

A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'. I continued this medicine and all my Indigestion and Constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches, try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did!"

BRIGHT SHOW AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme Theatre program for tonight is bright and amusing from start to finish. The Hearst-Selig Gazette is particularly fine, showing Los Angeles school children playing Hans Christian Andersen's Fairy Tales, President Wilson throwing the first ball of the season, lady tennis champions at practice, and the "Dacia" at anchor off Brest, flyng the French flag.

"How to do it and Why" is a two-reel college story, featuring Wally Van. Van and his uncle John are funnier than ever. "Ambrose's First Falsehood" brings such terrible complications in its train that it is liable to be his last. "A Man's Faith," a remarkable little drama, concludes a most enjoyable program.

Make Monday Ironing Day

LET Sunlight Soap do your washing Monday morning and you can do the light ironing Monday afternoon.

The rub, rub, rub at the board has no place in the Sunlight way—so with the hardest part of washing cut out you'll feel like making it a good day's work by doing at least part of the ironing.

Follow the directions that cut your work in half and remember there's nothing in Sunlight to injure fine fabric or dainty hand. A $5,000 guarantee backs this statement.
