Values How many know values? How many values there are, when you come to think of it! The value of simplicity, the value of courage, the value of cheerfulness, the value of merchandise, the value of the things you do every day, the value of the things you use.

Few know so well the values of the practical things of every day use and wear as mothers do. They learn from experience the wearing value and the price value because they are the family buyers.

SUDDEN DEATH OF POPULAR OLDTIMER

While walking along the track near the city wharf yesterday afternoon F. E. Morgan was seen to drop, and on being picked up was found to be dead. During the early part of the afternoon Mr. Morgan was with some friends in town and appeared to be in his usual state of health, and was in particularly high spirits, as he was expecting his father and mother to visit him today.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, who are spending the summer visiting members of their family throughout the west, arrived on the Prince Rupert this morning, and were met by Canon Rix who broke the sad news to them.

"Doc" Morgan, as he was called by his friends, was a real old-timer here having arrived in May, 1808, and for the last few years had been in J. H. McMullin's office. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him, and his untimely death has cast a gloom over the whole city. Death was due to heart failure.

Heartfelt sympathy is felt for the bereaved father and mother, who had been looking forward to seeing their son, whom they had not seen for six years. A married daughter will arrive from Anyox on the Prince George.

Funeral services will be held in Hayner's chapel on Wednesday at 3 p. m. Interment will take place at Hamilton, Ont.

GENEROUS OFFER

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Crowell have arranged with Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie to conduct a rifle of their fine rowboat, equipped with an Evinrude motor, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross fund. Here is an opportunity to secure a useful pleasure boat, which will be very handy these fine days, and at the same time add to the Red Cross fund.

Dr. Price's CREAM BAKING POWDER

There is no alum in Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. The names of its ingredients, printed on the label of every can, show it to be made from Cream of Tartar, which comes from grapes.

No alum baking powder or food containing alum is permitted to be sold in many countries. To avoid alum read the label and use only baking powder made from cream of tartar.
