PEOPLE OF B. C. MUST RECLAIM THEIR HERITAGE

parted with coal valued at $3,530,000,000 on a promissory note for $928,000, is fairly typical of their coal policy.

Along with this reckless squandering of natural resources has gone a policy of encouragement towards frenzied finance which has resulted in the flotation of 4,760 limited liability companies, with a capitalization, mostly water, of $1,177,509,445, which is $3,000 per head for every man woman and child in British Columbia. The sequel is seen in the ruinous failures of such concerns as the Dominion Trust, the Albion Trust, Alpha Mortgage Company, National Finance Company, and others too numerous to mention. During the last four years the whole surplus accumulated by the government during the previous seven years has been dissipated and there is now a gross deficit of five and a half million dollars. If the arrears owned by the stakers of crown lands appeared on the public accounts in their true shape as a bad debt instead of an asset, this amount would be swelled by $12,000,000. From which it will be seen what the McBride government costs. A seventeen million dollar deficit in two years is going some. These figures do not include the $80,000,000 of guarantees handed out to the C. N. R. and other railways. Of this amount the C. N. R. benefits to the extent of $45,000,000, their bonds being guaranteed by the McBride government, both principal and interest at 6 to 6 1/2%. A possible annual interest burden of $4,000,000 for railways, not to mention the $80,000,000 principal, is a McBride legacy which will take a lot of handling by a thinly populated province, most of whose natural resources are tied up by greedy and unscrupulous exploiters.—H. F. Gadsby.

VARIED PROGRAM AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight and tomorrow the Westholme offers a nicely varied program, including a two-part Essanay drama entitled "When the Lightning Struck," and "The Voice of Silence," a drama, featuring Mable Trunnelle, Bigelow Cooper, Arthur Housman and Herbert Prior.

There are also two very fine comedies in "The Egyptian Princess" and "The Widow of Red Rock." The latter is a lively western production. A splendid Hearst-Selig Gazette completes a fine bill.
