BRITISH GOLD BROUGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

BULGARIA THREATENS TURKEY--VON SANDERS SUPERSEDED IN DARDANELLES

RECORD GOLD CONSIGNMENT FROM BRITAIN TO AMERICA

FIFTY-THREE MILLIONS LANDED IN NEW YORK--CANADA ALSO GETS A SHARE--HEAVY FIGHTING ON WESTERN FRONT--GRAIN VESSEL TORPEDOED--DESTROYER SUNK

(Special to The Daily News.)

New York, Aug. 11.—A special train has arrived from Halifax carrying $53,000,000 of British gold and securities. The gold is in the form of double eagles and is the largest shipment on record. It was brought across the Atlantic on a battleship convoyed by destroyers, and is alleged to have been under the command of Sir David Beatty. The specie was carried on an armed train, conveyed by a pilot engine to test the bridges. The purpose of the shipment is to reinforce British credit. A large shipment was also delivered in Canada.

Steamer Torpedoed.

London, August 11.—The British steamer Rosalie, of 2,700 tons net, bound from South Shields to Portland for grain, has been torpedoed. She was beached and the crew saved.

Heavy Fighting.

French and English reports state that a heavy bombardment marks the resumption of active hostilities on the western front. Heavy fighting continues on the Dneister.

Destroyer Sunk.

The British destroyer Lynx has been sunk in the North Sea. She struck a mine. Four officers and twenty-two men were saved. The Lynx was a modern vessel, built only about three or four years ago. She had a displacement of 935 tons and carried two 4-inch guns, two 12-pounders and had two torpedo tubes.

Aeroplanes Missing.

Paris, August 11.—Four aeroplanes which took part in the bombardment of Saarbrücken, failed to come back to our lines. One is said to have landed in Switzerland.

THE LEEANAW, TORPEDOED BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

The latest American vessel to fall a victim to German submarines. She was en route from Archangel, Russia, to Belfast with a cargo of flax and was sunk on July 26th, northwest of Scotland.

FISHING, FARMING AND MINING ON QUEEN CHARLOTTE ISLANDS

THE ISLANDS ARE DELIVERING THE GOODS IN ALL THREE BRANCHES OF INDUSTRY--FARMERS WILL MAKE GOOD SHOWING AT THE FAIR

(By F. S. Wright)

The Queen Charlotte Islands without steamboat connection with Prince Rupert were decidedly up against it. For several months the settlers have had to take any old chance or means of getting their produce carried over the Hecate Straits to Prince Rupert, and from all accounts it was hard luck on the man who had ventured on the new life to be so suddenly cut off as to outside communication, as were the Islanders last spring.

This, however, is a thing of the past, and from now on the old reliable Camosun, a boat known well and truly by every miner, farmer and prospector in the north, has taken up the work of keeping up the travel route between Prince Rupert and the Islands.

Recently tales have been told on all sides, how hard conditions were on the Islands; how transportation was lacking and work scarce. True, work is scarce as work is understood by roads and trails, but it is not scarce as to development of the various farms, etc. As in other districts dollars are scarce, but more stuff is being grown, more acreage coming under development, stock increasing, and mining development going on steadily.

If you want to see good produce growing, fruits, vegetables, etc., then go to Sandspit, to Skidegate, to Lawn Hill, to Queen Charlotte City and you will see produce growing, about which one passenger remarked (he had come from far Maryland): "We have nothing like the growth in the Southern States," and it is doubtful whether they have.

Do the people of Prince Rupert realize that on the coast of these islands green hands are engaged in trolling for salmon for the market, are getting good prices for their catch, and that in one case two men, fishing from a gasoline boat, caught 5,000 pounds of salmon in four hours? They got 4 1-2 cents for their fish, so figure out what can be made in fishing off the Islands. The only complaint the fisherman has is that they have only one carrier boat for their fish between Prince Rupert and the grounds, and they want another, so that they can have the fish they catch coming steadily into the Rupert market.

Here is the chance for the man who can use a trolling line and has a boat. One of the carrier boats will land him on the grounds, and will carry all the fish he catches to the Rupert market for one cent per pound. No danger of having the fish left on his hands. No danger of not being able to catch the fish, they are there in quantity, and all that is required is the ability to row a boat and use a troll. Surely that is not too much to ask a man in return for at any rate a good living these hard times. Of course there will be the usual amount of objections from scoffers: "This cannot be done. You must have that, or this to do it with;" but nevertheless some progressive ones are doing it and they are not yelling hard times either.

Minerals. Well, the Camosun, on her last trip drew in to the Ikeda wharf and spent a few hours loading up sacked ore for the Granby smelter. Not a large quantity, perhaps, as judged by Granby receipts, some fifty tons, but every pound was heavy with copper, and copper these days has its own price. There are other properties too on Moresby Island, some have been found and are being developed, but go and look at that country yourself Mr. Prospector, and then say whether everything in the way of prospects have been located on Moresby Island. Figure out how long it will take to unearth what lies hidden by the heavy growth of vegetation. You, as a prospector,

BULGARIA TO ATTACK TURKEY IF CONCESSIONS ARE GRANTED

EARLY ENTRY OF BULGARIA, GREECE AND ROUMANIA INTO THE WAR EXPECTED--FRESH BRITISH FORCES FOR GALLIPOLI ATTACK--THE GERMAN COMMANDER SUPERSEDED

London, August 11.—Bulgaria has offered to attack Turkey if she is granted Serbian Macedonia, as was promised her at the close of the Balkan war.

The early entry of Greece, Bulgaria and Roumania into the war is expected.

British Reinforcements.

Fresh British forces have been landed at Karachali, north of the Gulf of Saros. The offensive has been resumed south of Gallipoli and north of Gabatepe Points. An early forcing of the Dardanelles is looked for.

Von Sanders Removed.

Field Marshal Liman Von Sanders, the German commander-in-chief in the Dardanelles, has been superseded by the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg.

SLIGHT FIRE AT ROCHER DE BOULE

The Rocher de Boule Mine had a slight fire the other day which destroyed some of the shops at the mouth of the tunnel. Repairs have been effected and everything is in full swing again. Shipments of ore at the rate of 100 tons a day are being made.

will be able to realize how untouched the Island is.

Are the Southeast Coasters sending an exhibit to the Prince Rupert Fair this year? Do you think they would miss the opportunity? not they. They realize that as an advertising medium for both the Islands and the district, that the display of what they can grow, of what they can mine, and what the other natural resources of their district are, the fair at Prince Rupert is the one best bet in this Northland. They intend showing Prince Rupert and the strangers too, who may drop in at Fair time, what the Islands have done during the past twelve months.

They may not have built so many roads, etc. Dollars may be scarcer than doughnuts, but they have the goods to show at the 1915 Fair.

They are keen—keen as mustard, and the more one sees of each individual district, the more one realizes that the judges who have to pick out the best district exhibit in Northern British Columbia will not have an easy job.

A WESTERN SCOTS BATTALION BEING FORMED

Lieut.-Col. Ross, who is home at present recovering from wounds received in Northern France, has been given a free hand in the organizing of a battalion of "Western Scots." It will be different from any other unit of the service and will seek to give expression to ideas formed by Col. Ross while at the front.

The lack of a few teeth, or an odd toe, or even an eye, will not disqualify a man if he can deliver the goods in the way of fighting quality. Col. Ross believes that the man who has faced the hardships of the trail, the mine and the plain is already half trained and he wants to put the idea to the test. These men will be a trifle unorthodox in their methods perhaps, but they are liable to be terribly effective, especially at close quarters. Col. Ross is loud in his praise of the work done by all sections of the army at the front, and is not forming this battalion as an offset to what has been or is being done in the way of recruiting. The whole scheme is an experiment of selecting this western type for special service. Now then, old timers get busy and write to Lt.-Col. Ross at Victoria.
