GERMAN PLOT TO CAPTURE COAST CITIES

(Special to The Daily News.)

Several communications in this connection have been discovered.

LOCAL FISH BUYERS SEEK CONCESSIONS

A meeting of fish buyers was held in the City Hall yesterday afternoon, in conjunction with the fisheries committee of the city council, to discuss certain concessions desired by buyers using the government wharf.

There were present Ald. Edge, Mayor Newton, J. B. Beatty, C. H. Nunan, Mr. Poole, Harry Sheere, William Shrubbsall and Geo. W. Morrow.

The meeting was called for the purpose of arranging for an application for more space on the wharf for the handling of fish. At present, the space used is very limited and when a rush comes along the dealers are handicapped. During a general discussion, the question of charges came up, and Mr. Nunan, of the Atlan Fisheries, pointed out that the fishermen had to contend with charges at the government wharf which they did not encounter in other places. For instance, there is a charge of $2.50 for dockage; $1.00 for water, and a charge of $1.00 if a boat ties up at the wharf for one night. He also stated that the buyers, besides paying a fixed rental, had to meet a charge of 50c per ton on all fish handled while there was also a wharfage charge on their boxes and lumber.

The various points were freely discussed and it was agreed that the fish buyers and the fisheries committees of the city council and Board of Trade get together to form some plan for approaching the provincial government.

GREAT MINING DEVELOPMENT IN PORTLAND CANAL DISTRICT

PORTLAND CANAL REGION SUFFERED FROM EARLY WILDCAT-TING, BUT IS NOW COMING INTO ITS OWN — BIG MISSOURI IS EXPECTED TO OVERCOME PREJUDICE

(By F. S. WRIGHT)

Portland Canal is one of those mining camps which were unfortunate enough in the early days to have been associated with the wild cat operator. Through undue publicity a small boom was created, and people led to expect untold wealth to be gathered in by those taking the trouble to make the trip there.

As is usual with uncalled for booming, a setback occurred, and the camp dwindled. Capital at the mention of Portland Canal, drew back and tied up its purse strings. The prospector gave the camp a wide berth, although he knew that the mining prospects were good, but what was the good of prospects, if he could not interest capital in them when found.

Gold was what the camp was boomed on, and gold was what the people who went into the camp expected to find. They were disappointed sadly and from a population of three or four thousand, Stewart has dwindled to a mere 150.

These 150, are they downhearted? Maybe to a certain extent, but that has not prevented them keeping digging, and today Stewart and Portland Canal is beginning to come into its own. They have the mineral, low and high grade, in deposits that are a surprise to those investigating, and now capital has commenced to realize that after all the Portland Canal is a field with good prospects for returns for capital.

Recently the Big Missouri Group has been bonded by a group of American capitalists, who intend doing development work on the property. There is a large body of low grade ore on these claims, which, some claim, is the largest on the continent, and the Gastineau people are stated to be prepared to spend $30,000 in finding some way of treating this ore on a profitable basis. If after experiment, this can be done, there is no doubt that the Big Missouri as a mine will be heard from. It was staked years ago, bonded at least once before, but the proposition is such a large one that only the largest operators could do anything with it successfully, and it is now undergoing a trial by the largest low grade operators on the American continent.

The O. B. Bush property is being worked towards a developed mine. They are driving 600 feet of a tunnel here this year. This property is a silver-lead proposition with good values.

The Red Top Claims up Bear River are being worked and they have their first shipment of 20 tons of ore sacked and ready for shipment to Trail. The difficulties the owners work under are tremendous. Although there is a railway to within a few miles of their property, it is not running, and they are bringing this ore into Stewart on hand cars.

McLeod and Bruggy are shipping 20 tons to Trail from the Montana Group. This is high grade ore averaging $225 per ton.

W. George and his partners are doing development work on their copper claims, and numerous other parties of prospectors are in the hills. 1915 should be a year of new finds. The snow-fall, always an impediment to the prospector on the higher levels, has this year been light, and the

ALICE ARM CLAIMS SHOW GREAT PROMISE

Dr. A. E. Severance, of Tacoma, who represents American capital interested in mining development near the head of Alice Arm, went south yesterday morning. He reports that the property controlled by the syndicate which he represents is full of promise for the opening up of a rich producer.

Work has been in progress for five years, and until recently was confined to a large extent to properties near the Granby smelter. Recently the richest development has been shown on the Illianah properties, about thirteen miles from tide-water.

This summer a surprisingly rich body of copper has been opened up, the values of which have not yet been ascertained. An estimate placed by those engaged in the work puts it at thousands of dollars to the ton.
