TRADES AND LABOR SMOKER BIG SUCCESS

class consciousness into the minds of the working classes. When it has done that, it has done its work," he concluded.

During the evening, musical selections were rendered by Cy Confer, R. Anderson, H. Fletcher, Harry La Salle, W. Murray, A. Clapperton, C. D. Jones, G. Couture, Pte. Collier, Ed. Stilwell, V. C. Knowles, A. Gray, and J. Sturgeon, while Joe Laing recited.

Corgoral Fenton and Pte. Dunn, of the Irish Fusiliers, gave a fast three-round display of boxing, which referee Billy Wright adjudged a draw. The most amusing item in a very fine program was a world championship bout of 40 rounds between the champion of Africa and the champion of Patagonia. They fought at any weight under the catch-as-catch-can rules. The midget sometimes missed his foot on the ladder trying to swing at the dusky champion's wool and a circus movement ensued, with the nigger's complexion distributing itself all over the white. In the third round when the big fellow's footwork became hampered by his chest dropping to around his knees, the midget missed a terrific swing and the rush of air floored the giant who peacefully took the count.

The smoker, which concluded in the wee sma' hours, was voted by everyone as a huge success.

GROUSE MOUNTAIN

PROPERTY TURNED

R. P. Trimble passed through here last Monday morning on his way south after completing the details in a deal for Schorn & Bush's copper property on Grouse mountain, just back of the saw-mill camp. The consideration is understood to be a $75,000 bond.

This property is a zinc of low grade copper which will require a large expenditure of money on equipment and work before it reaches the producing stage, but it gives promise of being a very large shipper.

The property is only five miles from the railroad and the nearest point to the railway is about fifteen miles east of Telkwa.—Omineca Herald.

Noblesse Oblige

Rank imposes obligations—
or—as the French put it—"Noblesse Oblige."

It is a very natural and right principle that those who by their position in life command the respect of others should deserve it and be worthy of maintaining their position. "Much is expected of those in high station."

But this principle is not confined to persons of noble birth—it has a hundred applications. It applies, for example, to those manufacturers of reputation and prestige who make goods of high quality and who advertise them constantly in the newspapers of the land.

By their advertising they have attained an eminence where the very best in quality and good service is expected of them. They have set a standard and their very business life depends on the constant maintenance of it.

So that when you buy advertised articles you rest assured that you are getting the best value that money can buy.

Well may you place your faith in advertised goods. Well may you give them preference over articles which you can only hope may prove satisfactory.

For the principle of "Noblesse Oblige" is your guarantee of excellence in Advertised Goods.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
