

KIDNEY DISEASE WAS KILLING HIM

Until He Used "Fruit-a-lives" The Great Kidney Remedy

HAGERVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th, 1913.
"About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run down in condition. Having seen 'Fruit-a-lives' advertised, I decided to try them. Their action was mild, and the result all that could be expected. My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am as well as ever."

Noblesse Oblige

Rank imposes obligations—
or—as the French put it—"Noblesse Oblige."

It is a very natural and right principle that those who by their position in life command the respect of others should deserve it and be worthy of maintaining their position. "Much is expected of those in high station."

But this principle is not confined to persons of noble birth—it has a hundred applications. It applies, for example, to those manufacturers of reputation and prestige who make goods of high quality and who advertise them constantly in the newspapers of the land.

By their advertising they have attained an eminence where the very best in quality and good service is expected of them. They have set a standard and their very business life depends on the constant maintenance of it.

So that when you buy advertised articles you rest assured that you are getting the best value that money can buy.

Well may you place your faith in advertised goods. Well may you give them preference over articles which you can only hope may prove satisfactory.

For the principle of "Noblesse Oblige" is your guarantee of excellence in Advertised Goods.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
