duction of unusual importance young and old alike. and power is the Famous Players-Paramount four-part adaptation of Wilson Barrett's supreme dramatic triumph "The Sign of the Cross," which will be shown at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow.

The subject is an elaborate version of Wilson Barrett's popular drama, which has stirred the emotions of every civilized race throughout the world for several years. Comparison, at least as regards settings and scenic effects, must necessarily be instituted between this and other plays previously produced dealing with the same characters and perliod, and it must be truthfully said that the value of the present production is greatly enhanced by such a comparison, and while it | Terhaul-Heintzman Pianos. lloses nothing in elaboration of detail, it has the advantage of a story which has so firmly established itself in the favor of the FROZEN BAIT public.

The part of Marcus Superbus, the dominant character, is impressively portrayed by Willian Farnum and a notable cast has been selected in his support. In addition there will be shown two good comedies in "Taken by Storm" and "Seth's Sweetheart." Mr. V. C. Knowles has arranged a special musical program for the occasion.
