

HER DREAMS CAME TRUE

Life Unbearable from Indigestion
Health Restored by "Fruit-a-tives"

MELIE C. GAUDREAU

Rochon P.Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.
"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. I became thin and miserable. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again.

A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'. I continued this medicine and all my indigestion and constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from indigestion, constipation or headaches, try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did."

HONORARY LIEUT.-COLONELS ON PICCADILLY FIRING LINE

be it Piccadilly or the Strand, there may our honorary colonels be seen in bottle array, not to say sherried ranks, rallying around the old flag and enjoying it immensely. War has no effect on their high spirits.

Such are the moving accidents of flood and field which Major-General Sir Sam's honorary colonels meet so gaily in London. They are posted at all the strategic spots, the Savoy, the Cecil, the Carlton, the Piccadilly, the Ritz and nobly have they done their duty. They have done it so well that they have raised the price of many staples on the bill-of-fare. For example a certain famous liqueur brandy which was four shillings per glass is now five and sweetbreads have gone up sixpence—all due to the elevating effect of our honorary colonels. Incidentally they are doing a great work in London for mankind in general. They are fighting for our ideals as well as their own. For instance it is now possible to get a good cigar in London, properly kept and of an adequate degree of moisture. The honorary colonels did that. They have also instructed the English bartender in the manly art of making highballs and mixing cocktails. Until the honorary colonels took possession of London the cocktail as conceived by the English bartender was what you might call a poison bomb. It was full of hair oil. Now they leave the hair oil out.—H. F. Gadsby.
