SPLENDID COMEDY AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme tonight has a real good program. The Pathe Gazette shows very fine pictures of cavalry manoeuvres in Egypt; Russian guns in action, and Princess Alexandra, of Teck visiting soldiers.

"The Inventor's Peril" is the story of two inventors who are working on a wireless telephone, and who meet at a country house party. A crank, who has accused Signor Marvelli of stealing his plans, attacks the inventor and kidnaps his hostess' daughter. The wireless phone aids in the rescue and all ends happily.

"Who goes There" is two reels of the best comedy seen for a long time. Walter Perkins as "Topsy" has an endless succession of most laughable exploits. "The Cadford Diamonds," a one-act drama concludes a program which is both interesting and highly amusing.

"THE BROKEN COIN" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Broken Coin" is still drawing crowded houses to the Majestic Theatre. Kitty becomes possessed of both halves of the coin only to lose them again. The story is as interesting and thrilling as ever.

"A Lonely Salvation" is a pretty little drama in which Mary Fuller plays the part of a girl rescued from the underworld. It is a story full of pathos and very interesting. "Defenders of the Empire" is a series of very fine views of the Indian troops, and "Their Brides got Mixed" is a most amusing comedy in which two eloping couples get mixed up with comical results. The Animated Weekly depicts something novel in water stunts, some of Hy Meyer's clever cartoons, and several other interesting items. The entire program is good.

The Case of AB Smith Retailer.

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city.

He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then. This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, sales-manager, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things.

What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him?
Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
