DARING GERMAN SPIES ON WESTERN FRONT

German spies on the war front of Belgium and France are very daring, especially on the line held by the British. An instance is given by a cavalry officer when three Germans came straight through the British lines in a motor car. Two of them were disguised as French officers who were supposed to be bringing back the third as a prisoner, he of course, being in German uniform. They got close to army headquarters before they were detected and captured. What happened to the spies is not stated.—Ex.

"THE COUNTRY BOY" AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight and tomorrow patrons of the Westholme will have an opportunity of seeing a splendid four-act Famous Players feature, entitled "The Country Boy." This is one of the finest Paramount films ever produced and everyone should make an effort to see it.

The country boy goes to New York and secures an office position with a salary of $15 per week. He meets an attractive chorus girl; becomes infatuated; enters a round of gay life; gets into trouble and loses his job. How he returns home and is forgiven by his sweetheart is splendidly portrayed. The photography of the piece is very fine, showing several scenes of gay night life in New York.

The Pathe Gazette shows John Redmond, M. P., reviewing 25,000 Irish troops, boxing bouts between soldiers and sportsmen, an air raid on Paris, etc. The program concludes with a most laughable Keystone comedy, entitled "His Taking Ways."

On Friday and Saturday Charlie Chaplin will be here in "Work," a two-reel comedy. On Monday and Tuesday, "The Diamond from the Sky," the great serial, opens. $10,000 is offered for the best sequel to this exciting serial.

The Case of A.B. Smith, Retailer.

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city.

He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then.

This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, salesman, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things.

What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him?
Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
