GUNS TURN RED HOT IN FIGHT WITH FRENCH

Berlin, Oct. 14.—Correspondents of Berlin newspapers report that the fighting on Monday in the districts around Loos and Souchez was most bitter. An intense bombardment of twenty hours preceded the French attack, which began Monday morning. It was directed against the hill near Vimy, as well as against the German positions further north between Loos and Givenchy.

The particular object of the French onslaught was the elevation to the west of Vimy, which commands the flat land of Lens. The artillery battle was of such intensity that the guns could not be handled with bare hands.

The French penetrated the German trenches in only one small section where the defenders and their guns had been buried by the French artillery fire. Bavarian troops threw out the French, using knives and hand grenades.

FINED FOR CREATING DISTURBANCE IN RESTAURANT

Charles Kallstrom and Richard Anderson were each fined $3.00 and costs at the police court this morning for creating a disturbance in a Chinese restaurant. Accused, while under the influence of liquor, entered the restaurant and called for a meal, which they afterwards refused to pay for. When asked to pay, they smashed some of the crockery. Anderson who is a big husky fellow, must have been mistaken for crockery, judging by the war map around his optics.

Flowers are more fragrant when the sun is not shining on them, according to a French scientist, because the oils that produce the perfume are forced out by the water pressure in the plant cells and this is diminished by sunlight.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY NEWS

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city. He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then. This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, sales-manager, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things.

What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him? Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
