ANNUAL MEETING OF RED CROSS SOCIETY

The annual general meeting of Prince Rupert Branch Canadian Red Cross Society will be held at the county court room on Friday at 8 p. m.

No notice of this meeting will be sent other than those in the press. A full attendance is requested. 246-8.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Broken Coin" drew the usual crowded house at the Majestic last night. The twelfth episode of this great serial is probably the best yet. It contains a real bull fight and many other exciting items, while Grace Cunard is as quaintly funny as ever. The Animated Weekly is particularly good, while the youngsters simply screamed last night at the antics of a "chink" fixing an automobile. The latter film is a series of very clever drawings. The comedies are both good.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Diamond from the Sky" goes along merrily at the Westholme. The story is becoming more exciting and full of incident as it proceeds, and bids fair to be one of the Westholme's greatest successes. There are two very fine dramas besides, in "The Price of Silence" and "The Repentance of Dr. Blinn," while the comedy, "Two Hearts which beat as Ten," is extremely funny. The management announces a famous Paramount feature, entitled "Snobs" for Wednesday.

REQUEST GRANTED

A letter from the secretary of the Northern B. C. Agricultural Association was read at the council last night asking that, in view of the fact that the city had made no donation to the funds of the society for 1915, the water account of $36 and the light account of $24, be cancelled. The request was granted.

The Case of A. B. Smith, Retailer.

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city. He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then.

This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, sales-manager, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things.

What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him?
Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
