COMEDY AND DRAMA AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme tonight and tomorrow presents a splendidly varied program of comedy and drama. A two-act Lubin drama, entitled "The Gold in the Crook", heads the bill, followed by "The Gold Dust and the Squaw," a Selig drama. "All on Account of Towser" is a Vitagraph comedy drama both interesting and amusing, while the funny side of the program provides lots of fun and includes a Kalem number, entitled "Hickville Tragedy Troupe." Hickville stunts are always most laughable and this is no exception. "Billy's Debut," a real good comedy concludes an excellent program.

This week's installment of the "Road O' Strife" is not yet to hand, but may arrive before evening, in which case it will be screened. Monday brings along another episode in "The Diamond from the Sky."

PROMISING LIMONITE DEPOSIT AT COPPER RIVER

J. V. Rittenhouse has returned from a visit to the limonite properties near Copper River, in which he is interested. Analysis shows that the ore contains 50 per cent. of iron, and, with awakening interest in the steel industry in British Columbia, this property should be utilized at no distant date. The deposit is well situated as regards transportation and a large quantity of high-grade ore is available without further opening up.

ESSANAY FEATURE AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The chief feature at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow is a three-act society drama, entitled "The Return of Richard Neal." It is a story of a bogus count who manages to be introduced into good social circles with the intention of stealing. In order to attain his ends he resorts to hypnotism. When he hypnotises the fiancée of a young doctor he strikes a snag and interesting developments follow. The drama is an Essanay production, so that the acting and staging are of the finest.

"Helen's Sacrifice" is a thrilling little railroad drama, and "His Fairy Godmother" is an excellent comedy, while "Sophie's Home-coming" is calculated to make anybody laugh. The entire program is good. "The Broken Coin" continues its adventurous career on Monday and Tuesday.

RED CROSS DANCE

There was a large attendance at the Trafalgar Day dance held in St. Andrew's Rooms last night in aid of the Red Cross fund. The music, furnished by an orchestra of seven pieces, was delightful and everybody had a real good time. The floor was in splendid condition and dancing was kept up until an early hour this morning. The musicians gave their services free and the refreshments were donated, so that the Red Cross fund should benefit considerably.

The ladies of the Red Cross Society wish to thank Messrs. Ed. Stilwell, Alec Grey, Charles Balagno, A. H. Hoelscher, James Lee, C. Harvey and Pte. Corby, of the Irish Fusiliers, for the splendid music rendered during the evening, and all who contributed in any way to the success of the dance.

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city.

He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then.

This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, sales-manager, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things. What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him? Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
